

Paul S Tompkins

Paul S Tompkins is a longtime veteran of the motion picture, television, and marketing industries with over 20 years experience in Hollywood.

He has authored or collaborated on dozens of screenplays and was represented by one of the world's top talent agencies, International Creative Management.

While in Los Angeles, Paul studied under screenwriting instructors Robert McKee, John Truby, Michael Hauge, Syd Field and others. He attended UCLA and is a graduate of the Hollywood Film Institute. Now based in Oklahoma, Paul continues his studies online as a graduate of Hal and Cheryl Croasmun's ScreenwritingU courses.

As an actor, Paul performed in scores of commercials, prime time television series, movies, and daytime soaps. Beginning his career with Roger Corman he went on to work with such notable producers and directors as James Cameron, Francis Ford Coppola, John Frankenheimer, and Joel Schumacher.

Paul is co-owner with his wife Deborah of two Oklahoma City based cinema companies. VisionPix is a development, promotion, production and marketing company. CrazyFish Films is a production company specializing in inspirational features and television series.

Paul writes, produces, and directs through his companies. As an instructor, Paul teaches screenwriting and producing, providing one-on-one mentoring to aspiring writers and filmmakers on their projects.

Current list of VisionPix/Crazy Fish Films projects include:

Buffalo Gap; There Goes the Groom; Lord Have Mercy!; Shoot the Devil; Transference; The Demon Familiar; First Flight of Billy B. Barnes; Final Edition; Hands of Johnnie Hound Dog; Hard Hot Explosive; The Last Big Deal; Cowboy in My Pocket; Raising Pastor Wilkes; How NOT to Make a Christian Movie; It Happened One Honeymoon; The Theory of Simplicity; Pizza Jesus; and The Truth Café.