

Sarah Anderson

WARDROBE STYLIST

CAREER OBJECTIVE

My name is Sarah Anderson and I am a wardrobe and photo stylist living in Dallas, TX. I believe very strongly that I would make an excellent addition to your upcoming production. Wardrobe plays such an important role in presenting stories. Without saying a word, the overall look of a character communicates silently yet steadily to an audience. I would love to work for, and alongside the members of your production molding that visual. When the actor connects with the camera, an audience, and most importantly their character, I am reminded why I love photo styling. Whether it's wardrobe or prop styling, I am fascinated by the story behind the photograph. My job is to help relay that visual message thru film.

EXPERIENCE

Girl Friday on Tuesday has been the moniker which I have worked under by myself since it's inception over a decade ago. To me, the name brought forth to mind an image of someone whose determination was a force to be reckoned with. Girl Friday on Tuesday has been the umbrella from where I have been so fortunate to operate out from under and do what I do best. Dallas is where I call home. My roots here are deep and I have such respect for the local community who have taught me so much. The City of Dallas has served as my own backdrop for many a print fashion editorial, various music videos, an award winning independent short film, or even most recently a JJ Abrams produced series. Dallas has been where I have met Karl Lagerfeld and seen firsthand how clothes can make or break a story that needs to be told. This is my passion.
