The rekindling of old friendships,

As the infant deaths escalate, Netra must embrace her powers and confront the vampire threat.

• Meanwhile, Deceneus' time travels reveal the origins of the vampire plague and his own rule in its creation, leading to a confrontation with his past self.

Deceneus' journey through time reveals the consequences of his actions and the cyclical nature of good and evil.

His younger self's decision to create the vampire army

In the end, Netra must confront not only the external threat but also her internal struggles,

Accepting her destiny and the responsibility that comes with it, where sacrifices must be made and destinies fulfilled.

Reezal is the skeptical investigator who clashes with Netra's unconventional methods.

Shaun is the headstrong Interpol agent who tries to take control of the investigation.

Along the way, Netra receives guidance from her grandmother Nenek, whose wisdom and knowledge of local legends provide valuable insight.

Other characters include Wang, Netra's supportive colleague and father figure,

Kirana, Netra's deceased sister,

and Asmara, Netra's
pregnant cousin.

she unknowingly merges with the soul of Vlad the Impaler, a powerful vampire form the past.

This sets off a chain of events that reveal a dark force targeting newborn infants around the world.

The story unfolds in two timelines: Netra's present-day investigation into the infant deaths
