

EXT. SPACE STAR CONSTELLATIONS

(Voice of Narrator)

Only a few men know the true purpose of the relics and the power they hold. Long ago an oath was taken by religious men whom are direct descendants of Abraham, Moses, and the twelve Disciples of Christ. Every 100 years there is a planetary alignment of the four planets of Jupiter, Venus, Mars, and Mercury that signifies the birth of an ancient child from the bloodline of Adam & Eve. The descendants of Abraham and Moses were charged with the protection of this child, and guide him on his path in life always keeping a watchful eye on them. The descendants of the twelve disciples were broken into two's and were charged with the protection of one of the six Relics. In the creation of the earth as God used the six pieces of his armor and formed them into the Relics, there was a specific reason why they had to be protect at all cost. The Relics' true purpose has only been known to three individuals in history: God, the son of God, and Lucifer, the former Archangel cast out of heaven. The relics never stay in one place for a long time. They can only be unearthed by an ancient ritual then moved to a new haven and placed back into the earth. For centuries the relics have been protected from evil by the ancient ancestral descendants of Gods most promising followers. Now comes a new plot of evils design that may change the face of our world for all time. Now the war finds its way to Earth.

FADE TO BLACK.

EXT. GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE-DAY

The morning was like any other moving through the smog slowly to reveal the Golden Gate Bridge. The morning forecast is being aired over the radio and is calling for yet another beautiful day in sunny California. As traffic moves up and down the highway the we moves off over land and approaches the outskirts of the San Diego desert. Dark clouds begin to form as if a storm was coming.

EXT. SAN DIEGO DESERT-DAY

Looking out at the coming of the storm clouds over the vast plain of desert and mountain rock. The ground begins to tremble as a dark opening appeared within the desert mountain wall in the form of a sinister cave. At the mouth of the cave you see a faint shadow of a man. As you move in closer to his face you see that he doesn't look well or normal at all. Behind him within the darkness of the cave you see a set of evil-like eyes.

DARKNESS

(deep dark voice)

Now my servant go and find the artifact I seek.

DARKNESS (CONT'D)

(deep dark voice)

It is hidden within this city in a church. I know it is here find it and return to me.

MALVARTUS

Yes my master it will be done.

(deep dark voice)

Let no one get in your way.
Malvartus, do not fail me.

Malvartus proceeds out of the shadow of the cave into the light. He looks around for a minute as these are his first steps on Earth. He heads west towards the city of San Diego in search of the church that protects the relic.

(deep dark voice)

Soon the world will finally know its end, as will the heavens that protect it.

FADE OUT.

INT. HALL OF THE ARCHANGELS-DAY

Gabriel and two other warrior angels enter the hall only to find Michael on his knees in some kind of deep meditation.

GABRIEL

Michael, forgive my disturbance, but our father request your presence in his chamber.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)

It is unwise to keep him waiting brother.

Michael stands up and spreads his beautiful wings as if he was stretching while turning to face his brothers.

MICHAEL

Very well brother Gabriel, let us go to our father's calling.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

(looking at Gabriel)

Why do you look so worried brother Gabriel?

GABRIEL

Something doesn't feel right
Michael.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)

I think something evil is upon us.
I have never seen our father this concerned before.

As they are walking toward the door of the hall Michael stops and turns to see Gabriel resting one hand on his cheek.

MICHAEL

My brother Gabriel, whatever it is we will take it on together, and we shall not fail our Lord God.

Michael turns toward the door and exits the Hall of the Arch Angels. Gabriel looks at his two warrior angel brothers following him and gives a half of a smile as he nods his head. They also exit the Hall of the Arch Angels to catch up to Brother Michael.

INT. GOLDEN CHAMBER OF GOD-DAY

Michael enters the chamber with Gabriel the rest of the Archangel Elite's and kneel before our Lord God's golden throne not revealing any part of his physical form just a bright radiant light.

GOD

It is good to see all of my children on this day.

GOD (CONT'D)

Michael, my loyal child.

Michael lift's his head up and responses with three graceful words.

MICHAEL

Yes my lord.

GOD

A darkness has come upon of us, and your fallen brother Lucifer has found away to re-enter the heavens to claim his vengeance.

MICHAEL

How could that be possible my lord?
I cast him out never to return.

God projects a radiant light toward the ceiling of the chamber, and they all looked up to see two beautiful angel seers flying into the golden chamber with white and gold wings. They descended down toward each side of the lord's golden throne.

GOD

Arise Michael, and come forward.

Michael stood up and walked toward the throne between each seer.

As he gazed upon their faces he notices their eyes were white as snow. The angel seers were blind but blessed with Gods power of inner sight to see into future. Both seers placed their hands on both Michael's shoulders and gave him a vision of what is to come. Michael witnesses not only the world but also the heavens in flames, and as he focused in looking through the flames he sees Lucifer. Once the vision is over Michael falls to his knees.

MICHAEL

(enraged and confused)

(MORE)

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

That cannot be possible. I cast him out of the heavens myself, how is it that he would be able to return.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

(looking up toward God)

My lord how is this the future we all face?

GOD

Michael, you must prepare your army of angels. Prepare for war.

GOD (CONT'D)

You never truly knew the real reason for Lucifer's uprising those many centuries ago.

GOD (CONT'D)

He was in search of my six relics of power, and he thought that they were hidden here somewhere in the heavens.

Michael rises up to his feet.

MICHAEL

What are these relics of power, and why does he want them so badly?

The light of God grows and becomes brighter.

GOD

The six relics form into my holy armor that I used to create the earth.

GOD (CONT'D)

Earth is where the relics rest hidden from any and all evil, but if evil has found the relics it will turn tide of power.

GOD (CONT'D)

That is why you saw the vision you have seen, but the future is not yet set Michael.

MICHAEL

Can we find the relics and use them against evil?

GOD

(a loud fierce voice)

NO, the collars that all my angels wear, you can never use the relics. The relic's power will consume any angel that tries to harness its power.

GOD (CONT'D)

Michael, you must seek out the descendant of my first human creations Adam and Eve. Their bloodline and only the bloodline are worthy of using the Relics power to vanquish evil.

MICHAEL

What happens if Lucifer acquires all six relics?

God remains silent for a few seconds, and then replies to the Archangel Michael's question.

GOD

Then my power will become his, and nothing can stop him from returning to the heavens and taking his vengeance on us all.

FADE OUT.

EXT. SAN DIEGO TEMPLE OF THE CHURCH OF CHRIST-DAY

The Shadowy figure sent from the dark cave going by the name Malvartus arrives at his destination, which is a beautiful white church where a great holy artifact is supposedly being guarded.

Malvartus walks up to the temple doors as they fly open with a fierce wind that blows from nowhere. The dark clouds form in the sky as the hooded figure steps into the temple, and the ground begins to shake violently. The entire California coast is hit all of a sudden with a massive earthquake as the battle begins between good and evil.

INT. TEMPLE OF THE CHURCH OF CHIRST-DAY

Malvartus begins to walk toward the altar, the window glass bursts out of each window as he passes by them. Five priests walk out and stood in front of the altar shouting.

PRIEST'S

(all together)

Be gone evil spirit. You are not welcome here.

MALVARTUS

(growling in anger)

I've come for the artifact. Give it to me and I will spare your lives.

The Elder priest moves forward to reply to the Malvartus.

ELDER PRIEST

Leave here at once or we will be forced to vanquish you in the name of God.

Malvartus begins to rush toward the elder priest with insane rage as four other priest block his path, and engage him in fierce combat. They all moved with such speed that no ordinary man would be capable of, and the priest were very well trained in the arts of combat. The elder priest could plainly see that he and his brothers were out matched against this new evil foe. So without hesitation the elder priest removes an ancient text from under his robe and begins reading the ancient words of god in order to protect the relic, and vanquish the evil presence.

ELDER PRIEST (CONT'D)

I command you foul unclean spirit, who ever you are, how dare you attack the servants of God.

ELDER PRIEST (CONT'D)

By the mysteries of incarnation, passion, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ, by the descent of the Holy Spirit, by the coming of our Lord for judgment, that you tell me by some sign your name, and the day and hour of your departure.

ELDER PRIEST (CONT'D)

I command you, moreover, to obey me to the letter, I am a minister of God despite my unworthiness; nor shall you be emboldened to harm in any way the creature of God, or the bystander, or any of our possessions.

In the process of speaking the words the four priests defending against the evil presence are slain one by one. As the last of priest standing the elder simply says.

ELDER PRIEST (CONT'D)

You will not find me so easy to defeat foul creature.

Leaping up and back onto the table the elder priest draws from under his robe two medium-size swords engraved with the ancient inscription of God, and assumes a fight stance.

ELDER PRIEST (CONT'D)

Your time is at an end. Back to hell with you.

MALVARTUS

(with confidence)

I hope you will be more of a challenge for me.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

After I have defeated you, I will take what I have come for.

From under the sleeve of his dark trench coat a surge of dark energy emerges, and a shadow sword extends.

With a slight fade to his right climbing up and pushing off the chair Malvartus moves fiercely toward the elder priest. The elder priest leaps forward as both of their blades meet with fierce sparks and flashes of bright lights.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

Impressive old man. You are a formidable adversary, but you are far to old too best me.

As the battle between the two forces waged on the elder priest health starts to deteriorate as he is too old to keep up the fight any longer. The elder priest is wounded by the Malvartus and falls to his knees in prayer as he now knows that he has failed in to protect the relic.

ELDER PRIEST

(as the life leaves his body)

Our father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Malvartus reaches down and removes the two golden matching armbands from the elder priest body, the first of the relics to ever be acquired by evil.

MALVARTUS

And so the war has begun.

As he turns and walks toward the exit the church ignites in flames which symbolizes evils first victory of this new found war.

FADE OUT.

EXT. EARTHQUAKE AFTERMATH SAN DIEGO-DAY

Looking at the city of San Diego from a higher angle you hear the sounds of multiple car alarms, emergency vehicles, and faint cries & screams of the many people injured by the massive earthquake. As emergency helicopters fly over head you hear a report broadcasting the quakes magnitude and radius of the area that was directly affected.

REPORTER

This is .....reporting live for downtown San Diego on the aftermath of this horrific quake that has caused considerable damage to the inner city.

In the background of one of the news media camera feed, you see the shadowy figure of Malvartus just walking normally as if nothing is going on. People around him are in a state of panic. Police and EMS response teams are trying to aid as many people as they can while the firefighters are engaged with burning structures.

FADE OUT.

EXT. SAN DIEGO DESERT CAVE-NIGHT

Malvartus approaches the sinister cave with the first relic. The evil eyes appear deep inside the cave. Malvartus kneels in front of the cave and holds the golden armbands above his head.

MALVARTUS

My lord, I have returned with artifact, and the priest was no match for my might.

A large dark shadow forms at the mouth of the cave and retrieves the golden armbands for his demonic creation.

LUCIFER

(deep dark voice)

Excellent my spawn of evil, you have served me well.

LUCIFER (CONT'D)

(deep dark voice)

(MORE)

LUCIFER (CONT'D)

Now go and seek out the next artifact, and bring it back to me.

(deep dark voice)

I will unleash our army unto the earth to aid you for now the balance has been tipped, and the angels of heaven will descend upon the earth to try and stop you.

As Lucifer's shadowy form withdraws into the dark cave he gives his final request.

(deep dark voice)

Malvartus, you are my wraith unleashed against heaven's forces. Make me proud.

MALVARTUS

(rising to his feet)

Yes, my lord of darkness, it shall be done.

The eyes of Lucifer fade into the darkness as the sky turns dark and ash and rock begins falling from the sky. The desert floor begins to crack open as the many hands of hell soldiers and demon climb up from the depths of hell.

FADE OUT.

EXT. Langley Air Force Base, Virginia-DAY

A large Air Force C-17 is on a landing approach into Langley Air Force Base returning from Afghanistan. The heavy aircraft touches down on the runway and taxies toward the hangar, and the rear cargo door opens. A hand full of soldiers exits the big metal bird happy to be back in home. A lone figure exits last, and we move in close on his face noticing his rank and last name on his uniform. His name is Adams and his rank was Captain. He was second in command of an Air Force Special Tactics unit. His commanding officer Major William Miller approaches him.

MAJOR MILLER

Steve, you feeling alright buddy?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Yes sir, I was just taking a minute to collect myself.

MAJOR MILLER

(nodding his head)

Well you know that the first round is on me, so I will see you in the officers club. Understood, Captain?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(with a smile)

Yes sir, I'm just going to stop over at the base chapel first, sir.

Adams walks away and heads off into the hangar.

FADE OUT.

INT. Langley Air Force Base Chapel-Day

Captain Adams enters the empty chapel hall and sits down in the front row. He looks up toward the altar at the statue of Jesus Christ when a gentle hand comforts his right shoulder.

PRIEST

Is everything alright my son?

Steven looks over his shoulder to see an old priest dressed in his traditional robes.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Father, I didn't hear you come in.

PRIEST

Is something troubling you my son?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Well, yes father there is something that I am unsure of or maybe even missing in my life.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

Father, I'm here because I feel that I am meant to do more in this life, but I have doubts in my ability to succeed.

PRIEST

(reassuring tone)

My son you are destined to do great things in the name of God and mankind, and when that time comes don't dwell on it, but embrace it, and keep to your faith.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

You shall overcome my son.

Steven's confidence has been restored by the priest's kind words. He turns to say thank you, but finds no one behind him. The priest just vanished into thin air.

Slightly confused Steven stood up and turn toward the exit. As he exits the chapel and walks down the sidewalk the Priest appears at the window watching him leave.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

Your destiny is far greater than you can imagine my son.

The Priest pulls a cell phone out of his inner pocket and dials a number. He places the phone to his ear as it began ringing, and someone answers on the other end.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

He is not yet ready to bear this burden, but we must prepare my brother.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

We are running out of time, and the first relic has already been stolen. I will keep a watchful eye on Steven at all times, and if they discover him, he will be in great danger.

The Priest hangs up the phone and exits the Chapel.

FADE OUT.

INT. BASE OFFICER'S CLUB-DAY

Steven enters the officers club with a slight skip in his step from his motivational conversation with the priest in the chapel. Major Miller waves him over to the bar with drinks lined up to be consumed. Steven makes his way over to the bar and greets his Major with a warm handshake.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Thanks for the invite Sir.

MAJOR MILLER

(firmly speaking)

So Captain, where did you run off to so quickly, and is everything alright?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Sir, I just needed some alone time for myself, so I headed over to the base chapel to collect my thoughts.

MAJOR MILLER

(nodding his head)

I know how you feel son. That last tour was a rough on us all.

MAJOR MILLER (CONT'D)

And you got a serious guardian angel because that cross-fire you got caught in had an extremely low survival rate.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(with disappointment)

I just wish that all of our men could have made it out of that firefight.

Adams drinks two more shots off the bar counter top and replies with a burning sensation in his throat.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

Yeah, I'm still trying to forget that moment as well.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

All those innocent people they got caught in the cross-fire with those damn insurgents.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

They didn't deserve to die like that, and I couldn't do anything to save them.

Miller places his hand on Adam's shoulder.

MAJOR MILLER

You couldn't save them all my friend, but you did a hell of job over there.

MAJOR MILLER (CONT'D)

So be proud of what you did accomplish because I am. I could use twenty more soldiers like you to be frank.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Yeah right sir I'm just one man, and there's nothing special about me.

MAJOR MILLER

You never know my friend.

They raise their glasses for one more drink.

MAJOR MILLER (CONT'D)

Here's to survival Captain.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

And too our fallen brothers

They both drink tilting their heads all the way back and then forward to level off.

MAJOR MILLER

Alright soldier, time to get out of here and rest up for tomorrow.
Trust me you have earned it.

The Major walks away from the bar and head toward the exit, and as Adams drinks his last shot from the bar counter top he glances at the TV on the wall. He stands and watches the media footage of the earthquake aftermath in California, and the reports of a large church in San Diego burning down that maybe due to a gas leak of some sort during the quake. Adams with a hint of sorrow turns away from the TV heading toward the exit.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CITY OF CHICAGO-NIGHT

Soaring over the city of Chicago the hour is late. We move closer to the street heading toward the Rockefeller Chapel. You hear the sound of cars approaching, and at a moderate speed. Three black BMWs emerged from around the corner and pull in to the Chapel parking area. Armed Priests exit the vehicle looking around before opening the back doors of the cars. The perimeter is secured and the two elder priests, descendants of the twelve disciples exit's the rear passenger side of the middle BMW. Without hesitation the Priest enters the church, and a few of the security priest remain outside to keep watch.

Just across the street from the church you see a dozen sewer rats head into a dark alley. As we move closer into the alley you see the rats combining and grow into a lesser demonic form with red beady eyes, watching the chapel and the many priests who are standing guard around the chapel's perimeter. The creature jumps up on the trash can and leaps to a pipe leading to the roof of the building. We learn that this is a shape shifting lesser demon as his back starts to push outward as if something was trying to break out. The skin of the lesser demon gives way and a bat like creature emerges, and flies west into the night.

INT. ROCKEFELLER CHAPEL UNDER CHAMBERS-NIGHT

Inside the Chapel Under Chamber the two disciple descendants greet each other.

BROTHER PAUL

Brother Peter how have you, its been a long time?

BROTHER PETER

To long my old friend, and I wish our reunion could have been on better circumstances.

BROTHER PAUL

We haven't much time, and we must remove the relic from this place and get it to the Holy City where evil has no dominion.

BROTHER PETER

Yes I agree brother.

From underneath their robes they each open their bible, and pulling two separate manuscripts from within its pages.

BROTHER PAUL

What do you know of brother Simons fate in San Diego. Did he survive the church fire?

BROTHER PETER

His remains were found amongst the ash, and the relic is gone.

BROTHER PETER (CONT'D)

That is why we must hurry before evil finds its way here.

BROTHER PETER (CONT'D)

If I'm not mistaken, evil must have the first relic already, and it will lead them here, but I fear we may already be too late.

BROTHER PAUL

We must unearth our relic, and move it before evil learns of its location.

BROTHER PAUL (CONT'D)

Come brother let us prepare.

The Elder Priest prepares for the ancient ritual to unearth their relic.

FADE OUT.

EXT. SAN DIEGO DESERT-NIGHT

The desert floor is cracked into pieces, and we witness hell's army running rampant from overhead as the winged lesser demon flies past. Malvartus is standing on top of the sinister cave looking out over the desert floor observing the army he will lead to victory in the name of his forsaken master. The lesser demon lands firmly on his left shoulder and melts down into his skin becoming a part of him.
Malvartus now knows the location of the second relic, and the elder priest who stand in his way. He jumps down in front of the cave entrance and bows as the evil eyes of Lucifer appear.

MALVARTUS

My master, I have located the next artifact in the city of Chicago.

(deep dark voice)

Excellent my spawn of destruction.

(deep dark voice)

Now go, take the army that I have bred for you and recover the artifact. Let nothing stand in the way of your victory, and return to me.

MALVARTUS

It will be done my master.

The eyes of Lucifer fade back into the cave as Malvartus rises to his feet and faces his army. We move closer to his face as he smiles.

FADE OUT.

INT. HALL OF THE ARCHANGELS-DAY

Moving down the corridor into the great hall of the Archangels we find Michael and his fellow Angels preparing for war. As he and the rest of the Archangels engage in tactical planning of their first assault. Michael previously dispatched two warrior angels on a recon mission to learn the whereabouts of hell's army. The recon team returns entering the hall and kneeling before Michael to report their findings.

RECON ANGEL#1

Brother Michael, we have found the location of hell's army.

RECON ANGEL#2

They have broken ground and have setup a stronghold in the desert mountains of San Diego.

MICHAEL

Very well my brothers. I have a new mission for you now.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Track down and find the descendant of Adam and Eve. If evil learns of his presence he will be in great danger.

RECON ANGELS 1&2

Yes brother Michael, we will leave at once.

The recon angels rise to their feet and walk out of the Hall of the Archangels to begin their search for Steven Adams.

GABRIEL

Michael, in my opinion we must attack hell's army head on and break the morale in a single assault.

MICHAEL

No, we would lose too many of our warriors in a frontal assault, and eventually be overwhelmed ourselves.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

The only chance we will have in defeating the army of hell is to combine our forces with humanity.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

If they are to survive they will have to fight back and we will aid them to achieve victory.

GABRIEL

This is madness Michael, humans are no match for the demon hordes.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)

(close up to Michael)
How long do you think they will last against the dark army?

MICHAEL

That is why brother Gabriel, they will have us at their side.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Lucifer already has the first relic my brothers. The balance has already been tipped in their favor, and we are no longer concealed to eyes of man.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

But the hell-spawned army is also visible as well. So let us continue our preparations for battle.

The Archangels all stand around the war table still in deep thought and planning. We move closer to Raphael, Michael's third in command.

RAPHAEL

Where is the second relic brother Michael?

MICHAEL

The Angel Seers showed me in my vision a grand chapel in the City of Chicago.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

That is where I believe the second relic is resting.

URIEL

What of the other guardians? Have they began retrieving the their relics, and moving them to Holy Sanctuary.

JOPHIEL

Archangel Chamuel, Zadkiel, and myself have begun spiritually contacting all of the remaining descendant guardians.

JOPHIEL (CONT'D)

They have been warned to remove their relic, and get them to the Sanctuary.

MICHAEL

Very well, the second relic is the priority right now. It must be protected at all cost.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Go now my brothers and make ready.
Gabriel, you stay. I wish to speak with you.

Michael looks toward Gabriel with concern on his face.

GABRIEL

What is it, Michael? What troubles you so deeply?

MICHAEL

Lucifer has created something so fierce that I am not sure if we can defeat him. I saw a glimpse of him in my vision. He leads the army of hell in search for the relics.

GABRIEL

Then together, brother, we will smite this evil and return him to his master in pieces.

MICHAEL

I am glad I have you at my back Gabriel. Now go and prepare the legion for battle.

GABRIEL

Yes Michael.

Gabriel turns and leaves Michael's side as we move closer to see Michael looking down at the war table. Michael then turns toward the great window of the hall and we zoom out of the window to an outside view of the heavens.

INT. CHICAGO CITY HALL BUILDING - DAY

The Mayor along with the police Commissioner are escorted by a security detail down the main foyer, and they take up secure positions as the Mayor and Commissioner enter the elevator.

MAYOR
(frustrated)

Alright Commissioner, just lay it on me straight. What exactly are we dealing with here?

The Commissioner enters the elevator and hold up an tablet displaying the disposition of his forces.

COMMISSIONER

Sir, to be honest we don't really know what this is at the moment. All we know is that it appeared in Rockford in the vicinity of Loves Park!

The elevator door opens on the top floor and the Mayor and Commissioner exit. They walk down the hall to the Mayor's office.

INT. CHICAGO CITY HALL MAYOR'S OFFICE - DAY

The Commissioner holds the door as the Mayor enters his office pulling his glasses from his inside jacket pocket and putting them on.

MAYOR

So you're telling me that these things just appeared out of nowhere?

The Mayor sits down at his desk, and the Commissioner stands in front uneasy.

COMMISSIONER

Sir, so far we have unconfirmed reports that these creatures just uprooted from the ground somewhere in the Loves Park!

MAYOR

So how do we stop these things?

COMMISSIONER

So far Sir, all attempts to suppress them have failed with small-arms weapons. Sir, we don't have a lot of time to discuss our next move.

MAYOR

Are they heading for us Commissioner?

COMMISSIONER

Yes Sir, and they are going to be on the West perimeter of Chicago soon. I have ordered all swat teams to form a frontline perimeter while my other officers perform and evacuation of any bystanders to the Eastern part of the City!

MAYOR

That was good thinking Tom, meanwhile I will mobilize the National Guard and Contact Washington for further support.

COMMISSIONER

(concerned)

What about you Sir, you can't stay hear and ride this out.

MAYOR

Yes I know, but the people are just as important. Get my helicopter ready and have my detail ready to move once it is in position.

The Mayor stands up and walk to west window in his office. He stares into the distance wondering as to what is coming.

MAYOR (CONT'D)

Tom, go take care of your men, and I will get us some support so we can all survive this. What ever it is.

The Commissioner turns and exits the Mayors office shutting the door behind him. The Mayor turns and heads back to his desk. He picks up the red phone for a direct line to Washington.

(on the phone)

This is Mayor Richards authentication number 040519. I have a class 4 situation and I require an immediate responds force.

The Mayor hold the phone close to his ear awaiting a responds to his support request.

INT. HOLY ARMORY - DAY

Angels are in preparation for battle. They are dawning their armor and grab swords, bows, and quivers. Michael enters the chamber observing his brothers and sisters of the Heavens.

Jin practices his swords form over in the far corner. Michael walk through the center of the room towards Jin.

MICHAEL

You seem eager for battle my apprentice?

Jin recovers to a standing position to formally address Arch Angel Michael.

JIN

Arch Angel Michael, I just don't want to disappoint you in battle with all you have shown me.

MICHAEL

You have been a fine student, and not every lower angel gets the opportunity to train with Arch Angels.

JIN

I promise that I won't fail you in the coming battle my Lord. I am ready for what ever comes.

MICHAEL

I have no doubts about your worthiness in combat my apprentice, but this is a fight in which none have ever faced. Not even the Arch Angels are fully prepared for what is to come.

Michael puts his hand on Jin's shoulder looking him in the eye.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

You must stay vigilant in the face of evil, and give your enemy no quarter. This has been by far to boldest move ever made against mankind.

JIN

Then it is our duty to keep them from claiming the Earth.

(MORE)

JIN (CONT'D)
They will not achieve their goal while we stand the watch!

MICHAEL
That's just it Jin, the Earth is just the prize. I fear that their goal is the destruction of the Heaven itself!

Michael steps back and slowly drawing his sword gazing at the blade edges.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)
We are still unsure of their full intention are, but I will dies before I let one demon pass the heavenly gates. We will go to Earth and aid humanity in the fight that is coming to their shores.

Michael sheaths his sword.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)
Continue your preparations Jin, we are moving out soon.

JIN
At once Lord Michael.

Michael turns and walks away from Jin the entrance of the Armory and exits the chamber.

INT. PENTAGON WAR ROOM-DAY

The commanders of each branch of the United States armed forces have convened in a meeting on defensive strength and troop redeployment in the Middle East. A woman in civilian attire approaches General Ronald West with an urgent message for the Mayor of Chicago. General West stares at the piece of paper and his eye become widened with utter shock.

GENERAL WEST

Gentlemen, We have an urgent matter that just came up.

Passing the message to Air Force General Chris McCante.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

I just received word that the city of Chicago is under attack by an unknown hostile force.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

The National Guard has been deployed to evacuate the western parts of the city, but they are taking heavy casualties as we speak.

GENERAL MCCANTE

Could it be a terrorist attack of some kind?

GENERAL WEST

Chris, as of right now the Intel is unclear as to who or what we are dealing with.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

Right now we need eyes on target and boots on the ground.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

Chris, what assets do you have at Langley that can mobilize immediately?

GENERAL MCCANTE

Well one of our Special Tactics Units has just returned from Afghanistan.

GENERAL MCCANTE (CONT'D)

The unit commander is Major Miller.

GENERAL WEST

How soon can they be ready to mobilize, Chris?

GENERAL MCCANTE

I will make the call to have the team assembled within the next 24 hours.

GENERAL WEST

I will gather the 112th Army Brigade and two tank divisions, and head for Chicago.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

We can use Chicago Park as forward operations base, and also conduct extraction of civilian personnel.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

Gentleman, let's go to work.

The meeting ends with everyone standing up and making their way out of the War Room.

FADE OUT.

INT. Langley Air Force Base Command Center-DAY

Major Miller and Captain Adams are called into the Base Commanders office for an important meeting in regards to their mission performance overseas. As they enter the office they stand tall and salute the Colonel. Colonel Stewart is on the phone with General McCante receiving Intel and orders for the deployment of the 45th STU.

COLONEL STEWART

(on the phone)

Yes Sir, that is affirmative we will respond immediately.

Hanging up the phone quickly, the Colonel addresses the Major and the Captain.

COLONEL STEWART (CONT'D)

Gentlemen please have a seat.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Thank you, sir.

MAJOR MILLER

What's the situation, Colonel?

COLONEL STEWART

Major, Captain we have a situation that I need you and your team handle within our own borders.

COLONEL STEWART (CONT'D)

I am dispatching you to Chicago to handle an unknown enemy approaching the city from the west.

COLONEL STEWART (CONT'D)

Right now the National Guard is getting mobilized do defend against god knows what, and you boys will be a part of the re-enforcements being sent in to handle the situation. Have your team prepare to move out with the next 24 hours.

Good hunting out there gentlemen.
That is all. Dismissed.

Miller and Adams stand up and salute the Colonel before exiting his office.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CITY OF CHICAGO-DAY

A dark shadowy cloud approaches the city of Chicago from the west. The army of hell has arrived as you see the faint shadow in the distance of Malvartus. We move closer to his face as he speaks his first orders to his generals.

MALVARTUS

The artifact is here in the city.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

Demon Lords, annihilate everything in your path until you find it.

The ground trembles and begins to crack open toward the city as lesser demons rise up marching forward.

A county sheriff just happened to be driving nearby on the outskirts of the city and is overwhelmed by the lesser demons, but as he called in to headquarters you here him scream for his life through the radio. The entire precinct responded to the emergency distress call, and were all wiped out. An intelligence report is being relayed over the radio that they were overrun and the army of god knows what was heading for the city of Chicago, and requested the National Guard to assist local law enforcement followed by the military.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT STREET PERIMETER-DAY

The local law enforcement of Chicago establishes a barrier to the west of the city as officials inform the local residents to evacuate the western part of the city. The National Guard finally arrives by way of troop APC's, Armored Division, and Helicopter Gunships. As the National Guard re-enforce the local authorities ground perimeter the first wave of hells assault comes without warning. At the end of the street lesser soldier demons arise from the ground in great numbers with a streaking high pitch sound that make the birds nearby head east as if they knew what was to come. One of the national guardsmen asks his Commanding Officer a simple question.

NATIONAL GUARDSMAN

Sir, what in the hell is that?

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER

I'm not sure what that is, but standby to engage on my order.

The men began to lock and load their weapons with their safeties off as National Guard Commander calls over the radio for a sit-rep. The Post Commander picks up his radio and response.

NATIONAL GUARD COMMANDER

Major, what is your current situation on the ground?

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER

Sir, I am not sure what this is we are looking at but they seem hostile in nature Sir.

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER (CONT'D)

Their numbers are great and we may need further assistance if we are to be successful in our attempt to suppress them, Sir.

NATIONAL GUARD COMMANDER

Don't worry, Major. Every available asset is being redirected to your location as we speak. Just hold that line until they arrive son.

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER

Yes sir, we well hold at all cost sir.

The order to attack was given as the many distinctive sounds of various weapons are heard when the soldiers engage in firing. The army of hell began rushing toward the perimeter front line while using great agility to jump from building side to building side in an attempt to avoid be hit by the weapons fire. As the hell soldier draw near to the frontline, the post commander orders his men to fall back to the secondary perimeter line.

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER (CONT'D)

(in shock)

They're going to breach the line.
Fall back to the secondary positions, but keep firing.

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER (CONT'D)

(yelling on the radio)

Air Calvary where are my gunships??
I need them on station now.

Soldiers begin falling back just as the perimeter collapses, and their air support flies over to cover the ground forces moments to the secondary. The gunships engage with mini-gun fire followed by rockets to suppress the enemy encroachment.

The dark cloud over the western part of the city seemed to be following this evil force that is now in a full-scale attack. The secondary defense perimeter is holding them off for the moment due to the gunships support fire. Two objects begin spiraling down toward the rooftop of different buildings. As the dark cloud debris cleared it revealed two of the Malvartus's winged Generals, and they had their eyes set on the helicopter gunships. One of the Generals raises his hand and a swarm of winged demons fall from the sky towards the gunships projecting fireballs from their hands and hitting a couple of helicopters. They are blown to pieces. The helicopters that were not knocked out of the sky by the first winged assault give chase to the demon in a retaliation effort. As the army of hell moves forward into the city the dark cloud of evil continues to follow covering a quarter of the city sky. Most of the civilians were evacuated to the eastern side of the city in hopes that the military had everything under control. The National Guard has been pushed back almost to the center of the city fighting a losing battle against the unstoppable evil force. Many of the gunship helicopters have been destroyed as the winged demons dominates the air for the moment.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CHICAGO POLICE/NATIONAL GUARD SECONDARY PERIMETER-NIGHT

As night creeps upon the city of Chicago the battle continues as military soldiers and civilians ban together in order to survive. Once again the frontline is weakening as the winged demons fly overhead projecting brimstone fireballs from above. Before the attack is fully completed a demon explodes after being hit by a sparrow missile from an F-18 Super Hornet. In an instant five more missiles come screaming over the city hitting more of the winged demons flying overhead, and then a squadron of fighter jets blow by overhead engaging the enemy air contacts in every direction. In the distance there is the faint sound of heavy H-53 helicopters approaching from the east with troop reinforcements. Their destination is a Forward Operating Base setup in Chicago Park.

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER

That sounds like our re-enforcements men.

NATIONAL GUARD POST COMMANDER (CONT'D)

So we have to hold until they get to us.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CENTRAL COMMAND POST CHICAGO PARK-NIGHT
(Sub-Title: Date 0136)

The H-53 helicopters set down on the ground unloading US soldiers onto the battlefield of Chicago. The landing zone at Chicago Park is only a few blocks away from the main fight as platoons head out to meet the enemy. As the H-53's come up on power and lift off the ground you see three V-22 Ospreys inbound from Langley Air Force Base with the Special Tactics Unit. They land in the park with a view toward the west and you see the anti-air weapons firing into the air from the central part of the city. As the smoke filled the sky toward the western part of the city, the Army of Hell is clearly more than a match for mankind, but still they fight to survive. Steven and his tactical unit finally make it on the battlefield and they break up into two teams making their way to the center of the city. They direct any straggling civilians in the direction of Chicago Park for extraction out of the city.

The Special Tactics Unit split up into two teams. Major Miller leads Alpha team, and Captain Adams leads Bravo team on two separate paths to the frontline of the fight.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

OK listen up men, we are currently unsure of what we are up against.
So keep your eye open.

CORPORAL AMBROSE

Sir, Command just radio that the west side of the city is clear and for funnel any remaining civilians that we come across to Chicago park.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Affirmative Corporal, Staff Sargent Blaine lets move out and we gather any Intel we can find as we move toward our check point!

SSGT BLAINE

Alright Bravo Team, you heard the Captain. Move out and watch your spacing.

Bravo team move cautiously toward the center of the city.

EXT. CENTRAL COMMAND POST CHICAGO PARK-NIGHT
(Sub-Title:0203) Three Blocks From The Frontline.

Bravo team continues to move forward as more Air Force and Navy aircraft fly overhead toward the central part of the city. Bravo team heads southwest in order to conduct a sweep of the area for any hostiles trying to flank the frontline. The re-enforcements arrive just in time to stabilize the frontline and repel the brutal assault that the army of hell was dishing out. With the special tactics unit only a few blocks away you here radio chatter of the frontline battle, and in the distance you can hear the sound of heavy mortar fire with a number of explosions.

MAJOR MILLER

Bravo team leader come in. Over.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

This is Bravo. Go ahead Alpha.

MAJOR MILLER

What is your position and ETA to the frontline?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

We are about five clicks south of the main fight, and we are pushing in that direction now Sir.

MAJOR MILLER

Copy that, Bravo. See you soon.
Alpha out.

Both teams are within five clicks of the frontline and closing in. Many civilians flee toward the eastern part of the city under cover fire from the military.

FADE OUT.

EXT. HEAVEN LEGIONNAIRE TRAINING GROUNDS - DAY

The Legions of the Heavens are formed in ranks awaiting the Arch Angels to give the order. Michael exits to the courtyard above with his Arch Angels at his back.

MICHAEL

Brothers and sisters of the Heavens, we have been called to battle. Mankind is in need of our aid.

(MORE)

MICHAEL (CONT'D)
The tides have changed, and we can't leave them to fight the darkness alone.

Michael draws his sword and points it into the air.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)
Let the weapons of the light forge finally meet the weapons forge in brimstone.

The Legions all chant together in victory.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)
Gabriel, send to out, and for glory my brother.

GABRIEL
Glory indeed my brother.

Michael heads back down the courtyard to enter the Hall.

Gabriel steps forward to take Michael's position. He spreads his wings.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)
To battle Legionaries, go now and let us descend upon our enemy.

Gabriel leaps hard into the air.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)
To Victory.....

The wind picks up gradually as the Legions of Heaven take to the air. They follow Gabriel downward into the thick layer of clouds that conceals the heavens above.

INT. HOLY ARMORY - DAY

Michael returns to the armory chamber to find Jin and four Deva Angels of his classification. They are suited for battle wearing the armor of ascension.

MICHAEL
Jin, are you and your Deva Angels ready?

JIN
We are ready Arch Angel.

MICHAEL

Good. Now your assignment is very important. You five are going to seek out the priest who protect the second relic while we hold off the hordes.

Jin's demeanor shifts in disappointment.

JIN

But I thought we were also going to join you in the fight?

MICHAEL

My young apprentice, don't be so hasty engage our enemies in battle. Your task is equally important as the fight at hand.

Michael place hand over Jin's heart.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

This task is meant for one that I can trust to see it through.

JIN

(reassured)

I understand my Lord Michael, and I will carry out your will. When do we depart.

Michael walks over to the wall of the chamber and opens a secret door in the floor to the open sky.

MICHAEL

You leave now and may the father protect you all. Now go...

Jin nodes his head at Michael and signals his team to follow him. They drop into the floor of the hidden door, and dive into the clouds descending down unto the Earth.

Michael retracts the lever and he too drops into the floor before the door is sealed.

CUT TO:

EXT. CENTRAL CHICAGO (THE FRONTLINE)-DAY.

Dawn slowly creeps up on the horizon as the Special Tactics Unit approaches the frontline rapidly one team on each side of the street pushing forward to the fight using the buildings as cover.

So far the line is holding against hell's army, buts not for too much longer. As the special tactics unit make their way to the frontline command post Major Miller orders his entire team to take holding positions while he and Captain Adams get a situation report from the post commander.

MAJOR MILLER

Alpha Team, Bravo Team join the line and take up holding positions.

MAJOR BOOKER

Major, glad you and your boys could make it.

MAJOR MILLER

What is your current status, Major?

MAJOR BOOKER

Right now we are taking heavy losses, but holding the line thus far.

MAJOR BOOKER (CONT'D)

For the moment these things keep making hit and run attacks every so often.

MAJOR BOOKER (CONT'D)

In my opinion I think they are searching for something.

MAJOR MILLER

Well let's get ready for their next run then.

MAJOR MILLER (CONT'D)

I'll have my team fortify the line behind your men and prepare for incoming.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Major, Bravo team will setup flanking position on the left side to provide extra support.

MAJOR MILLER

Copy that Captain. Stay alert.

The soldiers as well as the special tactics unit fall out to their positions and get ready. For a brief moment everything goes quiet. The soldiers are looking around for any sign of movement in the forward facility. It is like the calm before the storm, and then a door across the street one block in beyond the line creeps open and a young woman sticks her head out. Just beneath her a shadow of what appears to be a young child emerges.

CORPORAL SMITH

Captain, I got eyes on two civilians at 10 o'clock in the building side entrance.

CORPORAL SMITH (CONT'D)

Their in our line of fire, Sir. We have to get them out of there.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Roger that. Corporal, I see them now. Let's get ready to move.

(on the radio)

Bravo team leader, we got two civilians in our line of fire. We are moving in for retrieval.

MAJOR BOOKER

That's a negative on retrieval Captain. Try to wave them in to you.

Captain....Captain....

Adams and Smith step out beyond the frontline crouched down waving to the woman come to them. The woman and child start to walk out into the street toward the soldiers behind the line when the ground begins to tremble and crack open behind the woman and child. The hell spawns emerge for the ground in massive numbers.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(Shouts)

MOVE YOUR ASSES NOW.

He raises his gun and opens fire. The woman grabs her child and running up street toward Adams, but as soon as she hears the gunfire she ducks off into an ally, and Adams loses site of them both. Smith leads out in front of Adams with a heavy machine gun trying to cover the woman and child's escape, but they disappeared. Adams and Smith fall back to line thinking that the woman and child didn't make it. The frontline engages the army of hell in their massive numbers trying to cut as many down as the can. The hell spawn hit the frontline hard with projected fireballs hit one of the four tanks behind the line.

Making his way over to Major Miller, Major Booker ducks and dodges enemy fire.

MAJOR BOOKER

(yelling)

The reinforcement are not going to hold out much longer. We have to pull back, maybe even abandon the city.

MAJOR MILLER

(yelling)

That's not an option, Major.

MAJOR MILLER (CONT'D)

There still may be people left behind in the city.

MAJOR BOOKER

(yelling)

By now most of the civilians have already been cleared out of the city.

MAJOR BOOKER (CONT'D)

I've lost a lot men out here, Major. How many men are you prepared to lose to hold this city?

Major Miller carefully considering his men decides to agree with Major Booker and orders everyone to fall back and evacuate to the extraction point at Chicago Park.

MAJOR MILLER

Alright. Call it in.

MAJOR BOOKER

(over the radio)

All units fall back. I say again fall back to the extraction point.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(over the radio)

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

(over the radio)

Get your men out of here, Sir.

MAJOR MILLER

(over the radio)

What the hell are you thinking? I leave no man behind, Captain, so you better make it to that extraction as well understood.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(over the radio)

Sir, don't worry. Bravo team will meet you at the extraction.

The three remaining tanks also stayed to assist Bravo team and move forward with covering fire. Once Bravo team forms up behind the three tanks they too begin the fall back slowly down the street.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CHICAGO STREET (COLLAPSED FRONTLINE)-DAY

The hell spawns are nearing the abandoned frontline as tank shells fly over it trying to slow the enemy down. The little girl sticks her head out looking for her mother, and her mother calls to her from across the street.

MOTHER

Christy, baby, stay where you are.
I will come to you, sweetheart.

CHRISTY

Mommy, hurry please.

All the commotion caused them to get separated, and now a hell spawn sets his sights on the child in the distance and gives off a skin crawling screech as it charges toward her. The mother sees the creature and runs for her child as well. As time seemed to slow down with the mother and hell spawn locked in an intense race to lay claim to the child first. The woman prevails and reaches her child only to hold her for the last time as the hell spawn jumps up high and toward them both ready to rip them apart.

MOTHER

(embracing)

Close your eyes baby.

The shadow of the hell spawn moves over them both. And then in a quick flash it was all over. The mother and child open their eyes only to see the hell spawns face in front of theirs, but not moving or reacting at all as if it was frozen in time. Paning outward slowly we see the wings of what looks to be a bird figure. It is Michael as he removes his sword from the back of the hell spawn creature. Michael looks at the mother and her child.

MICHAEL

You must leave this city at once.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Take your child and go quickly.

Michael turns to face hells army and the camera zooms out behind him as the other Arch and warrior angel take position. The army of hell rallies in the street and the winged demons fly down to the building tops. A dark shadow cloud forms as Malvartus make his entrance.

Michael makes eye contact with the spawn of Lucifer, and Malvartus smiles as he orders his generals to attack. Michael looks over to Gabriel.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Get ready. Here they come.

GABRIEL

(rallying his angels)

Prepare yourself, my brothers and sister. Give them no quarter.

All the while bravo team is staring in shock of what they have just witnessed.

CORPORAL SMITH

Captain, what in the hell is going on?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Angels, Smith. Real live angels.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

Maybe. Now we might have a fighting chance against, well, I guess that is hell's army.

CORPORAL SMITH

(freaking out)

Damn man. This is the end of days.

(freaking out)

My momma sad that this day was coming and I didn't believe her.

(freaking out)

How the hell are we going to fight off the devil's army of demons, Sir?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

The same way we started to before we found out who they really were Corporal. So get ready cause here they come.

The Army of Hell charges as well do the warrior angels on Gabriel's orders.

GABRIEL

(battle cry)

Kill them all.....

Both army move swiftly toward each other as you see arrows of light being shot by Angel Archers, and fireballs from hell warriors.

FADE OUT.

INT. ROCKEFELLER CHAPEL HALL-DAY

The ritual of the second relic is in process, and nearing completion. A pack of hell spawn separated from the main fight in order to proclaim the relic for Malvartus. The attack on the Rockefeller Chapel begins as they eliminate the priest guarding the outer perimeter. The Priest's prepare themselves in the chapel main hall with number of holy weapons to smite the evil presents.

SENIOR PRIEST

My brothers, they are here. Prepare yourselves for glory in God's name.

The hell spawn storm the chapel destroying anything in their path with one objective in mind.

SENIOR PRIEST (CONT'D)

Show no mercy in the presence of evil, my brothers. Slay them all.

The Priests stood their ground in the defense of the relic as well as the elders, but they were getting wiped out fast. The relic now in the elder's possession is now unearthed and ready to be moved to a safe location. The elder's returns to the main hall from the underground chamber to find out that their fellow priests are engaged in combat against overwhelming numbers.

BROTHER PETER

(in shock)

My God in heaven, brother Paul.

They look at one another in shock to see hell spawns and demons in such numbers. The remaining priests form a perimeter around the elders in a last ditch effort to protect the relic.

SENIOR PRIEST

(yelling to all)

We must protect the relic my brothers. Now move to the elders.

SENIOR PRIEST (CONT'D)

We must get the elders to safety.

The mass number of evil forces closing in as the ceiling begins to caves and a hand full of Devaian angels lead by Jin descend into the fight.

BROTHER PAUL

Look my brothers, God has heard are prayers. He sends his angels to protect us.

Jin is a formidable Deva angel and he cuts down multiple demon spawn. He was well trained by Archangels Michael as he leads his angels against the hell spawn.

JIN

Take them down my brothers and sisters.

JIN (CONT'D)

We must drive them back to allow the priest time to escape.

The massive numbers of hell spawn and demons are quickly reduced to nothing. The elders are speechless at the sight of a real live angels. The elders and priest quickly kneel to Jin and praise him for his efforts.

BROTHER PAUL

(over joyed)
(MORE)

BROTHER PAUL (CONT'D)

It is an honor. Oh mighty warrior of the heavens.

JIN

There is no time old elder. The relic is not safe here, and more are coming.

JIN (CONT'D)

Two of my warriors will escort you and your priest to safety while we hold them off.

BROTHER PETER

(confused)

My lord, why can't you take the relic?

BROTHER PETER (CONT'D)

Yes, that would be wise. You can far better protect it than we ever could.

JIN

No, we angels are forbidden to touch any of the relic's by order of our lord.

JIN (CONT'D)

The task was set for you and you alone must fulfill your duty. Now go and may God be with you.

The Elder priests bow to Jin and head for they all head for the rear exit of the Chapel Hall.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CENTRAL CHICAGO BUILDING ROOFTOP-DAY.

Malvartus watches as his armies lay waste to the city and is all but focused on Michael with taste of revenge on his tongue. Behind him comes one of his generals with a report of the relic's location.

DEMON GENERAL

(kneeling)

My lord Malvartus, I have a report.

MALVARTUS

Speak my warrior of darkness.

DEMON GENERAL

We have located the artifact, but our forces have been vanquished by a group of warrior angels that now protect the priests.

MALVARTUS

(turning toward him)

Take command here. I will deal with these angelic dogs myself.

DEMON GENERAL

(rising)

Yes my lord, I shall obey.

The Demon General bows his head to Malvartus just as his wing sprout from his back. He soars into the air with a shadow-like exhaust trail toward the church.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CENTRAL CHICAGO STREET LEVEL-DAY.

Michael takes notice to Malvartus's hasty departure, and is sure that he is going for the relic. He slays four to five more hell spawn as he move to Gabriel's position.

MICHAEL

Gabriel, we must go after him, and stop him from obtaining the second relic.

Gabriel who is engaged in fierce combat eliminating eight to nine hell spawn at a time acknowledges Michael's orders and flies into the air behind him in pursuit of Malvartus.

GABRIEL

(in flight)

He is strong Michael, Will our strength together be enough to vanquish him?

MICHAEL

I'm not sure Gabriel, we were never prepared for this, but we must not fail.

Malvartus then disappears into thin air, and leaves Michael and Gabriel stumped in search for the slightest trace of him.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

(telling Gabriel)

We must split up, but stay close by. It may be a trick in order to separate us!

Michael flies up above the city to better his view when he is intercepted by two of Malvartus's demon lords. Not far from Michael location Gabriel is ambushed by a handful of hell spawn lurking the rooftops. Gabriel, unimpressed makes quick work of the unworthy foes by using his mace to smash their head with mighty blows.

GABRIEL

They just keep coming. They are only trying to distract me from Michael.

Gabriel realizes that he was being delayed on purpose and flees to aid Michael.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)

I must get back to Michael at once.

Michael is at a standoff with the two demon lords, and knows this is only a distraction to by Malvartus time to recover the relic. The demon lords engages Michael from a distance using brimstone fireballs as their primary attack. At this point Michael can't get close enough to engage his attackers. Two against one was not very fair, but Gabriel catches one the demon lords off guard and strikes him down hard to a nearby rooftop of a building. The demon lords are now in fear of the two archangels combined strength, and flee the battle.

MICHAEL

They were only meant to slow us down. We must hurry before we are too late.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

That church must be where the relic is hidden.

GABRIEL

Then let's make haste my brother.

The two archangels dive down with their wings spread wide in the direction of the Rockefeller Chapel.

CUT TO:

INT. ROCKEFELLER CHAPEL HALL-DAY

Jin and his fellow warrior angels are preparing to move the disciples out of the city to protect the relic, and get it to a secure location. The front entrance of the chapel explodes as dust, glass, and dirt fill the hall. Malvartus enters with a quivering laugh.

MALVARTUS

I hope I'm not interrupting your little private service, but I think you have something that belongs to me.

The dust finally settles and you see his true form. He is massive in size and his wings were dragon-like in shape with razor sharp edges.

BROTHER PAUL

(intimidated)

In the name of god, what is that?

JIN

We will hold him off, but I don't know for how long.

JIN (CONT'D)

We are no match for him so we must watch our footing against him.

Jin and his Devian angels now stand between the spawn of Lucifer and the relic of God.

MALVARTUS

Give me the artifact, and I will give you all a swift and painless end.

Jin turns to the elder priest Peter and Paul.

JIN

We will sacrifices ourselves to slow him down and allow you to escape.

JIN (CONT'D)

My two warrior angels will escort you to Archangel Michael where you will be protected.

JIN (CONT'D)

Now go.....

Jin turns his attention back to Malvartus.

JIN (CONT'D)

You will have to go through me before you claim that relic demon, and I can assure you that me and my warriors whom I command will not fall to you so easily.

MALVARTUS

(over joyed)

Then come to me you pathetic dogs of the heavens. Die like the rest of your kind.

Without haste Malvartus charges forward to engage Jin. Jin calm and focused draws his heavenly sword given to him by Michael waiting for the perfect moment to strike.

JIN

In honor of you Michael.....

Jin charges head to head with Malvartus as the rest of his warriors follow in his footsteps to glory.

FADE OUT.

EXT. BEHIND THE ROCKEFELLER CHAPEL-DAY

The elder priest and a hand full of servant priests are escorted by two warrior angels assigned to them by Jin. They are ambushed by hell spawn, and lesser demons in the parking lot. The two warrior angels defend the elders priests.

ESCORT ANGELS

(yelling)

We will hold them. Keep going. Get out of here now.

The priests run as ordered, but not far before they too are overwhelmed by the forces of evil. The Deva angels fight bravely, but are outnumbered by a long shot. A bright streak of flames flashes down striking the ground, and the demons are scattered in all directions from the impact. As the dust settles you see Gabriel joining the fight as the tide was quickly turned as Gabriel's mace dispatches seven to eight demons in every swing. The Devian angels regain their footing and continue the fight at Gabriel's side.

FADE OUT.

EXT. STREETS OF CHICAGO (BRAVO TEAM)-DAY

Adams and his team are moving toward Chicago Park to regroup with alpha team for extraction when a radio transmission is picked up.

GENERAL WEST (O.S.)

(over the radio)

This is General West of the 112th brigade to any military personnel in the area. Over.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(MORE)

This is bravo team leader of the 45th Special Tactics Unit. Go ahead, General.

GENERAL WEST (O.S.)

(over the radio)

Name and rank soldier?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(into the radio)

I am Captain Adams of the USAF special tactics unit sir. What is the situation sir?

GENERAL WEST (O.S.)

(over the radio)

I am feeding you satellite Intel with details of heavy activity of multiple contacts just North of your position.

GENERAL WEST (O.S.) (CONT'D)

(over the radio)

Adams, I need you and your team to proceed northeast to the Rockefeller Chapel.

(over the radio)

Recon that area and report back to me. Do you understand?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(into the radio)

That's affirmative sir, Adams out.

Adams rallies his team together for a quick briefing.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

Alright men, We have been ordered to investigate some heavy activity about eight clicks northeast from our position.

We will move in with a stealth approach not to be compromised.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

Let's move out team.

Bravo Team heads northeast toward the chapel in a hurry to get to their destination.

FADE OUT.

INT. ROCKEFELLER CHAPEL HALL-DAY

Jin is the last one standing against Malvartus with his will nearly broken. He raises his sword pointing it at his enemy.

JIN

You will not win foul creature. The heavens will prevail over the darkness, and your master will never be free from hell.

Malvartus with a few small cuts quickly grabs Jin by the throat and lifting him up in the air.

MALVARTUS

Foolish little angel, the heavens will burn as well as the Earth.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

My master will rise and enslave the souls of humanity, and you will be dust as will your God.

Jin smiles as the ground begins to tremble and shake as another bright streak of light approaches the chapel. Malvartus turns around to bear witness to the Michael striking him at full speed knocking Jin out of his hands and sending him flying into the back wall of the chapel hall. Michael floats down toward the battered apprentice.

MICHAEL

Oh' Jin, why did you fight him head on?

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

He was too powerful for you and your warriors to defeat.

JIN

(wounded)

My lord we had to protect the relic, and it was my duty to carry out.

(wounded)

We would rather die than to see you heavens fall to evil.

MICHAEL

Rest now my friend, I will deal with Malvartus.

Now enraged, the demon breaks out from the rubble and looks at Michael.

MALVARTUS

The great Archangel Michael, my master has told me a great deal about you.

MICHAEL

I guess he told of how I defeated him, and cast him out more or less.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Are you ready to follow in his footsteps demon?

Malvartus screams loudly with anger, roars and then stops.

(smiling)
(MORE)

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

No Michael. I think it is you who will fall this time.

Malvartus and Michael charge each other with the power of light and darkness and meet at the center of the hall in mid-air attacking and defending at the same time. Michael has speed over Malvartus cutting into him multiple times with his sword, and knocking him into the ground hard.

MICHAEL

Not so tough after all are we demon?

As Michael flies upward Malvartus jumps back up grabbing his leg and swinging him into two walls of the hall. Michael a bit shaken kicks free and rams the demon lord into the wall. Malvartus grabs Michael by the neck and returns the favor by ramming him into two more walls, and finally slamming him down hard into the Alter.

MALVARTUS

Michael... Michael, can you now see that my purpose was to destroy you.

Michael trying to move is somehow stunned for a few seconds from the strength of Malvartus. He comes to his knees trying to get to his feet, but Malvartus is already on the move for the fatal blow when Gabriel's mace strikes Malvartus in the face knocking him back and through the Chapel wall.

GABRIEL

I am here my brother.

As mass amounts of rubble fall on Malvartus's body Gabriel helps Michael to his feet.

MICHAEL

Thank you Gabriel. I owe you dearly my brother.

GABRIEL

We have to go before he can recover.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)

The relic has been taken, and the elder priests were slain.

GABRIEL (CONT'D)

Michael, we must regroup and gather our forces.

Michael nods to Gabriel in confirmation of his suggestion. Malvartus burst from the rubble and leaps toward Michael and Gabriel grabbing them both by their necks a slamming them both into the rubble of the chapel hall. Blood is dripping from the side of his face for the massive blow caused by Gabriel's mace.

MALVARTUS

Now you both with die by my hands.

Malvartus squeezes tighter around their necks. Near death Michael and Gabriel struggle to hang on when two grenade projectiles flash by catching their eye. As Malvartus turns to see what the flashes were they explode. Bravo Team has engaged and fire two anti-tank rockets at Malvartus. It is too late for Malvartus to counter as Bravo has taken him by surprise. The rockets impact him in him waist and chest cavity. Michael and Gabriel use their wings to shield themselves for the blast. The heavy impact causes Malvartus to release his prey freeing Michael and Gabriel from his evil grasp. Malvartus is wounded from the explosive impact of the rockets and flees in to air as he gives off a trail of smoke from his burning wounds.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

This is only the begin Michael and will return to finish the job soon enough!

Bravo Team enter the ruined Chapel sweeping to area for stragglers.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Bravo Team, secure this location.

Captain Adams walk toward Michael and Gabriel cautiously.

CUT TO:

EXT. ROCKEFELLER CHAPEL RUBBLE-DAY

Michael and Gabriel recover to their feet and tuck their wings as they approach Adams and his team.

MICHAEL

You are very formidable to be only mortal.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

I thank you for your aid.

Captain Adams steps forward and asked what was on every bravo team member's mind.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Are you Angels?

MICHAEL

Yes I am Michael, and this my brother Gabriel.

Some of the bravo team members whom were religious dropped to their knees before the Archangels Michael and Gabriel. Adams just stands with more questions.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

What is happening here, and if you guys are angels then I guess the other ones must be demons.

Michael confirms Captain Adams statement with a nod, and explains as to why.

MICHAEL

Normally no human should be able to see angels or demons let alone talk to them, but the balance of power has been tipped by evil.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

The army hell has risen, and is in search for the six relics of God hidden here on Earth.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

They have already secured the first relic which is why you are able to see us.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

So what are these relics, and what can they do?

GABRIEL

They are the relics of creation. Each one contains a specific ability. The first make everything known which is why you can witness us. It allow has a downside as well we as well as the Demonic horde can be hurt by your man-made weapons!

MICHAEL

Now they have just claimed the second relic from this assault on this city. The relic was beneath this chapel, and we failed to protect it.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

So what happens if they acquire all six of the relics?

MICHAEL

Lucifer will have the power of God himself, and destroy Heaven and Earth.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Was that Lucifer we just saved you from?

MICHAEL

No, that was Malvartus, a demon lord cut from Lucifer's own flesh in blood. He aims to free his master from his prison in hell.

The sky becomes shadowy as the other Archangel and warrior angels approach from the air to the grounds in front of the battered chapel. Archangel Raphael touches down in front of Michael and Gabriel, and Uriel, Chamuel, land to Raphael's right, and Jophiel, and Zadkiel land to Raphael's left.

(relieved)

(MORE)

MICHAEL (CONT'D)
My brothers you have all fought bravely.

Michael is relieved that so many of his warrior angels returned from their encounter with hells army.

RAPHAEL

Brother Michael, the army of hell is in full retreat, We are victorious.

MICHAEL

(with grief)

That is because they got what they came for.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

The relic has been taken, and we must regroup.

Michael turns back toward Captain Adams. He looks into his soul in an single stare to see Captains Adams conflict.
Michael looks Adams in the eyes.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

There is more to you then you know
Steven, but for now you must warn mankind of what is coming. Tell your leaders what has happened here today, and it is far from over.

Staff Sargent Blaine runs up to Captain Adams to report.

SSGT BLAINE
Captain, we've got a live one over here in the rubble.

Blaine guides Adams and Michael to the location to reveal the wounded Devian Angel Jin.

MICHAEL
Jin my apprentice. I sent him and his team to protect the priest guarding the relic. They sacrificed themselves to allow the priest time to escape with the relic.

GABRIEL

They should have known that they didn't stand a chance against him, but still they fought.

RAPHAEL

Yes Gabriel, they were true worthy of being Celestial to a higher calling in our ranks.

MICHAEL

We must return him to heavens. He must go into the healing chamber, but he may not survive.

Michael stand aside as two warrior angels step forward and pick Jin up. The move toward the exit and spread their wings and fly upward with Jin in tow.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Gabriel, leave a few warriors behind to patrol the skies. We will head back to assess the impact of this battle and plan our next move!

GABRIEL

Yes brother, I will give to order.

Michael turns back to Captain Adams and his team. He draws his heavenly dagger and hands it to Steven.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

What is this for?

MICHAEL

Call it a gift from the Heavens for your aid in battle. Maybe one day it will save your life.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Thank you Michael, I don't know what to say. It's not everyday I guy gets a gift from an Arch Angel.

MICHAEL

We will meet again soon. Prepare yourself Steven, because your destiny will require ever ounces of your faith for you to prevail. Now more that ever my friend.

CAPTAIN ADAMS
(confused)
My Destiny?

Michael places his hand on Steven's shoulder and smiles as he turns and flies up into the air. The remaining angels follow him back up into the heavens.

FADE OUT.

EXT. CHICAGO PARK-DAY

Bravo Team arrives back at Chicago Park to be greeted by Alpha Team and Major Miller. Miller pulls Adams to the side.

MAJOR MILLER

(concerned)

Captain, what exactly happened out there at that Chapel.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Sir, it is a long story and all I can really say is that the human race is in for the fight of our lives.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

We have to notify the President as soon as possible because this is far from over.

MAJOR MILLER

What the hell do you mean this isn't over Captain, and how did you come across this Intel?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Major, I'm telling you that this will soon be a global event, and we must prepare.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

We need to get to Washington DC and fast Major. I need to see General West immediately.

MAJOR MILLER

Alright Captain. Let's go to DC.

The V-22's engines start up as the Special Tactics Unit climb onboard, and strap in for takeoff. Their destination is Washington DC too explain the situation that is upon all mankind.

FADE OUT.

INT. GOLDEN CHAMBER OF GOD-DAY

Michael enters the God's chamber and with his six Archangels at his side march up to the throne to kneel before the Lord.

MICHAEL

My Lord we have returned unsuccessful in our task of preventing darkness from acquiring another relic.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

They now hold two relics of power.

GOD

My dear Michael, you underestimate yourself. You may have failed in your task, but you gain so much more.

MICHAEL

And what of Malvartus. How are we to defeat such evil. He draws his strength for Lucifer and out matches us all.

GOD

And yet a human was able to send him fleeing back to his stronghold.

MICHAEL

You mean the mortal Steven Adams.
Who is he in all of this my Lord?

GOD

He is the one you seek whose blood is of Adam & Eve.

GOD (CONT'D)

Only Adams can dawn the six relics and vanquish evil once and for all.

GOD (CONT'D)

You must guide and protect him
Michael for he is the hope of us all.

MICHAEL

My Lord why can't you put an end to all this?

GOD

I must remain here to keep up the protective barrier that shields the heavens.

GOD (CONT'D)

With two of the relics in evil's grasp the gates of heaven grow weaker so it is up to you to lead the charge Michael.

MICHAEL

Yes my Lord I understand, and I will not fail you again.

Michael and his six Archangels rise and turn to face the exit of God's golden chamber. As they walk out we move closer to Michael's face to see new found confidence as he is now ready to take the fight to Malvartus where ever he may be hiding.

FADE OUT.

EXT. PENTAGON-DAY

The V-22 carrying Captain Adams sets down on the landing pad at the Pentagon and the both teams unload. Adams and Miller salute as they are greeted by General West.

GENERAL WEST

Gentlemen great job out there today.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

Your efforts made the difference in the outcome of today events.

MAJOR MILLER

Sir, where do we stand with our force being able to mobilize if these things pop up elsewhere?

GENERAL WEST

We'll get to that issue once we are inside Major. Let's move down to the situation room so we can debrief you and your team.

MAJOR MILLER

Yes, sir.

The General along with Pentagon security escorted the Special Tactics Unit inside the building's inner structure to the situation room.

FADE OUT.

INT. PENTAGON WAR ROOM-DAY

The Admirals and Generals all rise as General West enters the situation room with Major Miller and Captain Adams. They approach the round table.

GENERAL WEST

Gentlemen please be seated. Captain Adams will now brief us on the severity of the Chicago situation.

GENERAL WEST (CONT'D)

Captain, you have the floor.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Thank you General West.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

My fellow superiors I'm afraid the situation is more grave than you have been lead to think.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

War is upon us, but it is not our war. We are just caught in the middle.

GENERAL MCCANTE

Captain, what do you mean caught in the middle? Just what exactly did you and your team encounter in Chicago?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

This is going to be hard for you to believe Sir, so please bear with me when I tell you that we were up against demons.

The commotion quickly starts after Adams makes his statement. Everyone is looking at Captain Adams as if he were a crazy man.

GENERAL MCCANTE

General West, do you expect us to believe that this soldier is on the level.

GENERAL WEST

Captain, this is no time for games. We were just attacked on our own soil and you are telling us that they were demons.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Yes Sir, and I know this sounds crazy, but it is what happened. I didn't believe it myself until the angels dropped out of nowhere and aided us in the battle.

GENERAL MCCANTE

Wait, now there are angels too.
(MORE)

GENERAL MCCANTE (CONT'D)
Alright. That's all I can stand Captain.

GENERAL MCCANTE (CONT'D)

Major Miller I want you to escort the Captain out here right now.

MAJOR MILLER

Sir, I don't know if what he says is true or not, but we engaged something in Chicago today and it wasn't human.

GENERAL WEST

Major Miller, what proof do we have of Captain Adams' so called claim?

Steven stepped back and watched as his superiors argued amongst themselves on whether to believe or not believe in his finding of today's conflict. He closed his eyes and prayed to Michael for his assistance.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

(inner voice)

Michael, I know you are out there and I know you can hear me. I need you to help me show them the truth of what is coming.

(opening his eyes)

Make them see and believe once
more.

The room began to tremble for a few seconds as everyone looks around startled. A bright light emerges in the center of the round table and Michael appears hovering with his wings spread and then set down on the table. The light fades and everyone can see the Archangel with their own eyes.

MICHAEL

General West, it would be wise to listen to Captain Adams. He speaks the truth of what has and will continue to happen all over the Earth.

GENERAL WEST

My God it's impossible. A real angel.

MICHAEL

Man has fallen so far into shadow that he has to see something physically in order for it to be real. Find your faith and you will be restored to glory.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

The army of hell has been unleashed on Earth in search for the relics of power. The relics of our lord, the Relic of Jericho.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

If we are to survive we must fight together as one. Prepare yourselves for evil is upon you all.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Steven, find the priest you spoke with in the Chapel. He will explain your true purpose. For now the fight will be yours until the angels of heaven have all regrouped.

The light reappears as Michael starts to glow brightly and then disappears into tiny specs of light.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Well, there you have it General straight from the horse's mouth.

GENERAL WEST

Alright Captain Adams. I doubt you no more. I must notify the President at once.

GENERAL MCCANTE

Yes we must prepare for what is coming next. I need to pray for salvation for my family.

GENERAL MCCANTE (CONT'D)

Major Miller, you and your team report back to Langley immediately.

MAJOR MILLER

Affirmative General, We will head out at once Sir.

MAJOR MILLER (CONT'D)

Captain Adams, form up the men and make ready for departure. We are heading home.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Yes Sir.

Adams turns and exits the situation room with confidence in the fact that his superiors now fully understand the severity of situation they all face. Moving down the hallway as his team awaits the word on what is to be done.

CORPORAL SMITH

Captain Adams Sir, what is the word for the higher ups?

CORPORAL SMITH (CONT'D)

Are we going to get ready for Armageddon or what?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Don't worry Corporal. They now understand what needs to be done.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

For now we head back to Langley and wait for further orders.

MAJOR MILLER

Corporal, just make sure when the call comes you are ready son. That the most important thing to think about.

MAJOR MILLER (CONT'D)

Alright team let move out the choppers are waiting.

The team all fall into the elevator and head back up to surface level. The V-22's are rotating on the landing pads awaiting its cargo of soldiers to board. Captain Adams and Major Miller are the last to climb aboard. William looks at Steven with a trusty smile.

If we make it out of this one, old pal, drinks are on you.

(smile on his face)

You can count on it Sir.

The loading ramp closes on the V-22 as it comes up on power and lifts off the ground into the air over the Pentagon. The helicopters head off in the southeast direction toward their destination.

FADE OUT.

EXT. Langley Air Force Base Chapel-Night

Steven and William now back on base walk up to the base chapel where Steven last spoke to the priest who gave him advice.

MAJOR MILLER

Well here we are just as Michael ordered.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Yeah, but I never thought in a million years I would get an order from an actual angel.

MAJOR MILLER

You want me to go in with you?

CAPTAIN ADAMS

No, I can manage on my own, but you can go and get some rest sir.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

I will update you in the morning, and if you don't call your wife and kids to let them know that you are still breathing, I will have to worry about them coming after me instead of demons.

MAJOR MILLER

Very funny Captain. I'll see you in the morning. Good Luck

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Thanks Sir, good night.

Major Miller turns and walks down the sidewalk away from the base chapel entrance leaving Captain Adams to discover his purpose on his own. Steven stares at the chapel's outer doors as they begin to open and he sees two priests wait for him holding a candle in each hand. Steven takes a hard swallow and proceeds into the chapel.

FADE OUT.

INT. LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE CHAPEL-NIGHT

Inside the chapel Steven is greeted by the old priest he spoke with before he departed for Chicago. He waves to Steven to come forward toward the Alter. Steven approaches calm and slowly not sure what to make of the situation as the room is filled with priests with candles that outline a walkway for him as he moves forward to the alter.

PRIEST

Steven Adams, welcome back. I'm sure you have many questions for us.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

I will first tell you before you ask that we are your mortal guardians.

(MORE)

PRIEST (CONT'D)
We have done so for many generations sinse the beginning of time.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Who or what am I exactly to you all?

PRIEST

You are the blood descendant of Adam and Eve, Gods first mortal creation. Your blood is the blood of our Lord and it holds great power.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

What am I meant to do against this army that hell has unleashed upon the Earth?

PRIEST

Against the Army of Hell you can do nothing, not without the Relics of Jericho.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

What are these relics, and please tell me that you have more knowledge of them.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)

The Archangel Michael knows very little of their purpose.

PRIEST

The relics were placed here when God created the Earth using each relic as a building block for creating some part of the world.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

The relics together form the holy armor of God , and with it comes all his power. You are the only mortal that can harness that power due to your bloodline.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

The relics are the reason why Lucifer turned on God and was cast out of heaven. He thought that the relics were located in the heavens and vowed to claim God's power for himself.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

That is why none of the angels in heaven know anything about the relics.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

So why does the Devil want them so badly?

PRIEST

Angels have been forbidden to even touch the relics because it will destroy them.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

The Devil is no longer an angel of heaven, which means if he can find them all then he can finally take his vengeance and destroy us all.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

So what should I do if the Devil acquires all six relics? How do I stop him?

PRIEST

There is a fail safe that God put into place if that ever happened, but I'm not sure if you will ever be ready for something of that magnitude.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Damn it father, tell me. I must know.

PRIEST

Very well Steven. Hidden somewhere on Earth lies the ultimate weapon, the swords of God call the Jericho Blade.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

It holds the power to defeat anyone who commands the armor of God, but that would mean you would have to do battle with the Devil himself if it comes to that.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

I see father, but if it is my duty and purpose then I would be honored to fight alongside the Archangels on hell's doorsteps.

PRIEST

No Steven. You misunderstand my words. The angels of heaven cannot follow you into the depths of hell.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

The journey from there will be your own to complete, and the fate of Heaven and Earth will rest on your shoulders.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

How do I find the remaining relics?

PRIEST

We have already begun to contact our brothers across the globe and will soon have the location of the third relic very soon.

CAPTAIN ADAMS

Father, we need the location of the Jericho blade as well, I don't want to take any chances on this.

PRIEST

Very well Steven. I will make inquiries on the sword's location, but only you can retrieve it from its resting place.

PRIEST (CONT'D)

For now please go and rest we have much to do to prepare for the coming weeks of destruction. Go with God my child.

Steven nods his head at the old Priest a stands facing the alter. He looks up at the statue of Jesus and then turns to walk down the long aisle. As he makes it to the door he stops to think about what Michael told him.

MICHAEL (O.S.)

(voice in the air)

You will need every ounces of your faith to prevail.

Steven looks up and around the door way after hearing Michael's faint voice. He then continues out the door.

FADE OUT.

INT. HOME OF STEVEN ADAMS - NIGHT

Steven enters his house closing the door behind him and switching on the lights. He drops his bag in the corner and walks over to the refrigerator for a beer.

CAPTAIN ADAMS
What a day.

He moves to his living room and lays back in his recliner while sucking down his beer. He pulls out the knife Michael gave him and gazes at for a while.

CAPTAIN ADAMS (CONT'D)
"Some day it may save your life" he says. Well I guess I can believe that after what I seen today.

He grip the knife hand and places his hands close to his chest. He closes his eyes and drifts off to sleep.

EXT. SAN DIEGO DESERT CAVE-NIGHT

A faint orange ball of fire makes it way down toward the desert floor. As it draws closer to the ground the ball of fire flares out on all sides. It impacts the ground hard creating a crater and a sizable explosion. From the ash and brimstone Malvartus rises and steps out of the crater. As blood drips from the left side of his face you can only see the fierce rage in his eyes.

MALVARTUS

(Screaming upward)

DAMN YOU MICHAELLLLLLLL!

He then calms himself as his Generals approach bearing gifts of praise over their victory in Chicago.

DEMON GENERAL

My Lord we have been successful in recovering the Artifact for you.

DEMON GENERAL (CONT'D)

Here it is Lord Malvartus, your prize.

The Demon General kneels as he hands the relic to Malvartus. He grabs the relic and the ground begins to lightly tremble as if Malvartus is being called upon.

MALVARTUS

Demon Lords that will be all for now. Leave me to my meditation. The master summons me.

Malvartus turns and walks toward the cave entrance. He kneels just before the opening as the evil eyes of Lucifer appear.

(deep dark voice)

My spawn of destruction tell me that you have the artifact that I requested?

MALVARTUS

Yes my dark lord I have proclaimed the artifact you seek.

Malvartus holds his hand up and opens it and the relic began to float up and into the mouth of the cave.

(deep dark voice)

Excellent Malvartus, now we must seek out the third artifact, but first you must fortify your stronghold here.

The ground trembles and crack open to reveal a larger portal. From the ash and smoke a fortress rises from the ground and stands tall in the San Diego desert. Thousands more demons and hell spawn pour onto the plains of the Earth.

(deep dark voice)

The angels of heaven, my former brothers and sister have descended upon the Earth to foil my plans to acquire all six artifacts.

(deep dark voice)

If they learn of our location then you must be ready to repel their assault.

MALVARTUS

My Lord what about Michael and the other six Archangels? I must destroy them if I am to succeed.

LUCIFER

(deep dark voice)

No Malvartus, they are for me to destroy when I have consumed all six artifacts, and then I will slay God himself as I destroy the heavens.

(deep dark voice)

(MORE)

LUCIFER (CONT'D)
You will obey me and only recover the artifacts.

MALVARTUS

Yes my Lord, but I was wounded by mortals, how is that possible?

LUCIFER

(deep dark voice)

Yes I see that balance of power is shifting which make Angels and Demons vulnerable to all weapons.

(deep dark voice)

Never the less you will crush all who stand before you. Show no mercy my spawn.

MALVARTUS

Yes dark one. It shall be done.

The eyes of Lucifer fade back into the cave and Malvartus rises to his feet. He turns and walks toward the desert passage opening where his Demon Generals await his command.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

My Demon Lords our master has spoken, and we will fortify our stronghold location before tracking down the next artifact.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

The Holy Light must never breach our walls.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

(pointing to the sky)

Go now and make it so my Demon Lords.

The Demon Generals spread their dragon scaled wings and fly up into the air. They each land on a mountain peak above the cave entrance and draw their swords of darkness.

As dark energy surges from each blade they then drive them deep into each peak cause an instant chain reaction. The ground shakes and splits as a wall with towers surround fortress rise up from the depths of hell. Malvartus smiles as his fortress and fortification have taken shape covering mountains and desert alike.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

And now for the finishing touch.

He raises his hand as dark energy surges in a black orb form with a red shadow outline. He then slams his hand to ground push the orb into the surface. The ground splits in four places and more hell spawn arise. Then you hear the faint sound of howling as the hellhound emerge from the ground in mass numbers.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

Demon Lords, I have an assignment for you.

The Demon Lords fly down the Malvartus and kneel before him. He looks at each of them with confidence.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

You will each leave here with different destinations.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

We are going to sack the nearest major cities where you will create and command smaller strongholds of your own.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

This will make it harder for the Archangels to determine our primary location here.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

As for the mortals you will kill any that resist, and convert the weak willed souls to our cause.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

Make no mistake about, their weapons can harm us now and we must be ever so cautious.

(MORE)

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

We must learn their defenses so we can overcome them.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

General Ractus, you will sack Los Angeles.

DEMON LORD RACTUS

Yes mighty Malvartus.

MALVARTUS

General Maus, you must sack Las Vegas.

DEMON LORD MAUS

In your name Lord Malvartus.

MALVARTUS

General Crylos, you will conquer
San Diego.

DEMON LORD CRYLOS

It shall be done my Lord Malvartus.

MALVARTUS

And final General Teranos, you will overwhelm the entire state of Colorado.

DEMON LORD TERANOS

It would be my honor Lord
Malvartus.

MALVARTUS

Now that you have your orders my Generals take our army and go and conquer in the name of our dark master who will soon rise again.

The four Generals rise to their feet and fly up each in a different direction with their destination and mission in mind. We move back close to Malvartus's face.

INT. HEALING CHAMBER OF HEAVEN - DAY

Michael enters the healing chamber and Jin lays in a vat of white liquid still battered from battle. He stands over him with regrets.

MICHAEL

Jin, I am sorry my apprentice. I would have never sent and your Deva if I knew that this would have been the outcome.

Gabriel and Raphael walk up behind Michael assess Jin's health.

GABRIEL

Michael, you put to much blame on yourself. Jin was well training, and by you at that!

RAPHAEL

Gabriel is right Michael, any other angel would have been cut down instantly against a powerful foe.

GABRIEL

He was even able to inflict wounds upon Malvartus which is saying a lot for his training.

Michael's face draws to anger, and he turns to face Gabriel and Raphael.

MICHAEL

(yelling)

Well I didn't training him well enough. There is no excuse for failure. Especially from an Arch Angel!

Michael calms himself once again before his brothers.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

I had my own doubts as to if he was ready for combat. He was so proud and honorable, and I let it cloud my decision.

GABRIEL

You gave him a chance to truly prove his worth. I feel that he succeeded.

Michael turns back to watch Jin.

MICHAEL

Gabriel, give it a rest. I gave a chance to die for what he believed in, and that was me!

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

A greater teacher would have known better.

Michael turns and walks pass his brother toward the exit.

EXT. SAN DIEGO DESERT DARK FORTRESS - NIGHT

Malvartus stand on the balcony of his stronghold still wounded from his encounter with the Arch Angels. Moving closer to Malvartus's face.

MALVARTUS

Now we unleash all of hell upon this world.

Moving closer to Malvartus's eye. In the reflection of his dark glazed pupils the Hell's Army arises by the thousands from the dark portal onto the plains of the Earth.

MALVARTUS (CONT'D)

WAR.....

FADE TO BLACK.
