

DRIVER'S WANTED

Based on my true-life experiences

Written by

Lawrence Whitener

WGA-East #I302129
8472 Misty Blue Court
Springfield, VA 22153
(cell) 571-969-0053
(email) L_WH@aol.com
U.S. Copyright 2020
by Lawrence Whitener

DRIVERS WANTED

Taxi meets Cheers as Washington D.C.'s fleet of less-than-professional schoolbus drivers contend with incompetent bosses, golden-spoon diplomatic students, multi-cultured home-lives, and a necessary second, sometimes a third job. The Transportation Lounge between Runs becomes their home away from homelessness. And their International Archie Bunker opinions are only matched by their desire to do their job.

Their diverse backgrounds bring unique and entertaining customs, traditions, and ideas into all their interactions. Their working atmosphere is fogged-over by the politically incorrect clouds always hovering over our Nation's Capital.

Note: Based on my ten years as a schoolbus driver in the DMV.

Lawrence Whitener

BIO: Studied for four years with Yale Screenwriting Professor Marc Lapadula who calls me his best student since Creighton Rothenberger. I now study under veteran TV-writer Larry Brody. My scripts have 40 Wins and 78 Nominations on IMDb.