

PART 1 - ZOE: -----How did I become a cool witch? -----

ZOE- Hi! I'm Zoe. I have a crazy story to share with you. I'm going to say that I'm the prettiest and coolest "sigh at the sight" alpha girl in high school, but that would be a total lie. I'm just a shy sixteen year old bookish girl who stirs her coffee with bookmarks. Sometimes I stare at the wall and think deep thoughts... but I get a little frustrated because the wall doesn't come back and answer.

(Lili enters the stage: a hippie with white hair, in a flowery dress, wearing a t-shirt that reads "Lavender is my spirit animal". She is holding a pot of mint, looking philosophical over her glasses).

ZOE- I live with my grandmother Lili. Yes, yes... that Lili! The woman who talks to plants, boils skin creams in the moonlight and asks our cat Umbra every morning, "Which chakra shall we open this morning?" Umbra still hasn't answered, but Lili can be quite persistent.

ZOE- But he's not oppressive at all. Except... once he really insisted: He wanted me to go to the school where Amelia was a librarian. "The blueprint of the universe," he said, so I went. The blueprint of the universe, huh? I would find out later what that meant.

ZOE- Amelia comes out of the bookshelves like a ninja and asks, "What universe are we going to get lost in today?" I show her the book in my hand and say, "Dealing with Dragons 101." I'm still not sure if it really makes sense.

ZOE- My school library is like a dream! It even has a garden; lavender, roses. And under every tree a student who misses class. But the best part? My girl clan: Mel, Caroline and Katie. We're kind of like... a gang of pastel witches. No cauldron, but a full set of colored pencils.

ZOE- Are we on top? No, we're not. Are we on the coolest list? Daisy's already got the throne. And we... we can't even find a tiny stool to sit on.

(Daisy enters the stage: her hair is purple, her steps are like walking on a catwalk. She is flanked by an army of hypnotized fans).

ZOE- Daisy. The walking light sign of the school. I can summarize this girl like this; Barbie + TikTok + Queen Bee = Daisy. Everyone is after her. Why is that? I think people are mesmerized by the violet purple. Or maybe... moonlight brainwashing. I haven't proven it yet.

ZOE- Anyway, my clan and I are having our own quiet revolution. We seek success, not popularity. We are quietly making history in our student files with the tournaments we win. My friends are the toughest girls in school, even though each one is different. Like the Royal Flush, everyone wants one.

And me! I am someone who believes in magic, who avoids eye contact, but carries sparks in my soul. I haven't caught fire yet, but... soon.

ZOE- On my mind! I must introduce you to the school's mythological heart thief: Hunter.

ZOE- He cuts electricity with his smile and causes earthquakes with his steps. Hunter, the marvelous product of one of the Olympian gods' marriages in America, is the natural disaster of the school. And what about me? I resist. Or at least... I try to resist.

ZOE- Because one day, on the school stairs... BOOM! I bumped into him. My books scattered on the floor. He bent down like a gentle knight and helped me. Then he looked me straight in the eyes and...

HUNTER- "Wow... you have beautiful eyes."

ZOE- said and done! That's it. Eye contact: 3.7 seconds. Speech: 1 sentence. And my heart was beating wildly: Boom, boom, boom!

ZOE- What happened after that? Nothing! And I hate it when men speak in short sentences. What would have happened if they had been a bit longer? Like Zoe, your eyes are beautiful, let's go and have a cup of coffee together. Or shall we have pizza together? Let's walk together and tell me how you inherited those beautiful colored eyes.

Disappointment, banana peel, Murphy's law at work.

Anyway, back to the original story. It all started with Mel asking me to do a climb on the training wall. Somehow he managed to convince me to join him. Mel told me that it would be fine. In the beginning everything was going well. Even I surprised myself, I was doing unexpectedly well. I was a little bit off the ground when my hand slipped. Then the guide rope snapped and I fell on my back. Even though I fell from a great height, it was enough to knock me out.

(Zoe dreams while she is unconscious. In her dream, a mysterious woman dressed in white and radiating sparkles talks to Zoe.)

ASTERIA- Zoe, honey, are you okay?

ZOE- I'm fine. What happened to me?

ASTERIA- You fell from a height. But you're okay. You'll wake up soon.

ZOE- And who are you?

ASTERIA- I am Asteria, your guardian spirit. I'll always be by your side from now on. You won't experience such an accident again. I will always protect you.

ZOE- Thank you. And why are you doing this?

ASTERIA- Because we've entered the new moon period and you've been chosen, Zoe! You've been chosen.

ZOE- That's beautiful.

ASTERIA- But you have to pass the test. Amelia will explain it to you. Now go to her!

Zoe is lying unconscious." AMELIA!" she wakes up screaming. A very worried Mel asks in fear.

MEL- Zoe, are you okay? You scared me so much!

ZOE- I'm fine. I'm very fine. I have to go to the library.

(Zoe quickly stands up from where she was lying down)

MEL- What? Don't you want to go to the infirmary?

ZOE- No. I'll tell you later. I have to go now!

Zoe takes quick steps away under Mel's astonished gaze.

ZOE- But at that moment... something moved inside me. It was like magic mixed with eye contact with Hunter. Me falling and meeting Asteria. I need to know everything. I ran to the library. I collected all the books with all the weird information. Telepathic attraction, aura brightening, energy channeling... All lined up in my hand (under my arm).

(Amelia suddenly appears from behind the bookshelves)

AMELIA- Zoe? What are these books? Magic, love, energetic attraction... Is this about Hunter again?

ZOE- No! I mean... yes. Let's say I'm doing a scientific analysis? He wanted me to see you.

AMELIA- Okay, angel. Look, you're Lili's granddaughter. Let's do a test. Go to the cafeteria, sit behind Hunter. Don't try to make eye contact. Quietly but sincerely, with all your strength, make a wish: "See me."

ZOE- Test, yes, that's what he said, Test. Or is this... a spell?

AMELIA- Who told you?

ZOE- Asteria...

AMELIA- Okay, that explains everything. Now let me answer your question. Magic is a little bit of heart, a little bit of intention and in fact pure power. And remember: A rocket doesn't take off without fuel. Without power you are nothing. Now we will see if you have power or not

CHAPTER 2 - EYE CONTACT AND THE GLEAM OF DESTINY

(Zoe goes to the cafeteria. Hunter and his friends are already seated. Zoe secretly sits at the back table).

ZOE (says quietly and inwardly): "See me. See me. See me... Hunter!"

(A silence. Then Hunter puts down the food. He turns his head. They lock eyes.)

ZOE- At that moment... time stopped. I'm not sure if violins started playing in the background. But my heart definitely went into a crazy symphony. And Hunter... he looked into my eyes.

ZOE- That tiny moment... maybe it was magic. Maybe it was just a coincidence. But I felt something stirring inside me. It was... a beginning. I stood on the edge of a magical path, and the witch in me was about to awaken. And Hunter was his usual self...

HUNTER- You... Your eyes are so... Huh....

(Hunter turns around in front of him, confused)

ZOE- Oh those men are always the same! I don't want to be racist, but I'm so glad I was born a girl!

CHAPTER 3 - THE SECRET WITCH ROOM

ZOE (inner voice) - That day... after that look... something stirred inside me. It was like my heart caught a rhythm, but it wasn't just a "I'm in love with Hunter" flutter. No, it was something else. It was something else. Deeper. More... bright. A spark awakening inside me. A magical spark.

(School hallway. As Zoe walks with light steps, Mel quickly enters the stage. He is wearing a mud-stained t-shirt and a mountaineering helmet. Her hair is disheveled).

MEL (out of breath) - ZOE! I went up to the roof at recess! This was definitely not the classic "feel the nature" climb! This time it was like a survival parkour lesson! I jumped from wall to wall like a lizard, but... the teacher saw me. I might get a detention! I think he's going to call my mom.

ZOE - Mel... one day. Look, just one day. Can't you not go on an adventure? What's going up to the roof? Why don't you take the elevator like everyone else?

MEL - My soul is hungry for freedom, Zoe! And the view was amazing! The wind blew my hair so much that I almost thought I was a seagull!

(Caroline comes with firm steps, takes the helmet from Mel's hand and looks at it.)

CAROLINE - This girl is definitely a secret ninja. But you're still telling me "you're too tough, Caroline". At least I'm not climbing on the roof!

(Katie storms onto the stage. A glitter pen in her hand, her eyes sparkling).

KATIE - Hey girls! You won't believe what happened! Jack said hi to me! SE-LAAM! In a very sweet voice, using all his lips!

ZOE - Oh no, what else do you expect him to use.... Maybe it's not a greeting but just lips moving in the wind?

KATIE - No, no! It's a sign! The universe is sending me a message. Zoe, what color do you think our wedding cake should be? Lilac? Or golden yellow?

ZOE - Oh Katie... Your love life is faster than Instagram trends.

(The bell rings while they are all laughing. Zoe returns to the library to get her books. As she walks between the shelves, silence falls. Then a whisper:)

AMELIA (suddenly appears from between the bookshelves) - Zoe...

ZOE (suddenly jumps) - AAAAH! AMELIA! Oh my heart! You scared me so much.

AMELIA (smiling, with a mysterious tone) - Once the spell starts... you can never go back.

ZOE - So... I mean... I don't know if this really happened... Hunter's wonderful "eye contact award winning" look... is it a sign of my magic?

AMELIA - That was just the beginning. The real action starts now. Follow me.

(Amelia walks ahead. Zoe follows curiously. They pass through the corridors and down the stairs. Then they come to a disused service door. Amelia opens the door: inside is an old room, dusty but magically shining. A broom, crystals, books... a painting on the wall: "The Hidden Chamber of the Witches")

ZOE (open-mouthed) - Is this... a movie scene or the most unusual cleaning room in the school?

AMELIA - This is the "Hidden Chamber of the Witches". In this school, every 20 years, a witch awakens. And... it's you, Zoe.

ZOE (in shock) - Once every twenty years?

AMELIA - Yes, every twenty years. You're the lucky girl this time.

ZOE (in shock) - I'm... a witch? But I'm just a coffee addicted girl who loves to read books...

AMELIA - And what you have to do now is to pass a test.

ZOE - Another test?

AMELIA - The tests never end on this path, Zoe. All life is made up of tests.

ZOE - I don't know...

AMELIA - Don't be afraid... you won't be alone. Because magic is not only about power, but also about who your heart beats with.

(As Zoe surveys the room as if mesmerized, her eyes fall on an old book. She touches it with her hand. Suddenly there is a flash of light, then everything returns to normal).

ZOE - This is... real. This room... the book. And I'm in it now.

AMELIA - Yes, you are. Don't be a coward. You can take it. Start practicing, but be careful.

ZOE - Okay, I'll be careful.

CHAPTER 4 - MINI CHAOS: SPAGHETTI SPELL

(One day later, while her friends are chatting, Zoe is sitting in the cafeteria, secretly reading her spell book. It's called: "Magical Energy Channeling Techniques for Beginners". On the page: "Simple speed magic". Zoe whispers).

ZOE - "Tempura accelerare!"

(Caroline is in the next chair. She has a plate of spaghetti in front of her for lunch. And suddenly the spaghetti moves. It starts to wiggle... it curls up... AND FLIES INTO CAROLINE'S FACE!) *

CAROLINE - AAAAAAH! SPAGHETTI IS ATTACKING ME! WHAT THE ZOE!

ZOE (in a panic) - I! But I didn't mean to! It was a speed spell, I swear I didn't summon the spaghetti spirit!

KATIE (giggling) - At least it was gluten-free. AHAHAHA!

(Mel lies on the floor laughing, Caroline scrapes the spaghetti off her face).

CAROLINE - The next time someone says to me "you look tough" I will throw this pasta in their face. Net!

EPISODE 5 - JASPER - BOY WITCH WITH FLYING CAT

(Students are whispering at the entrance of the school. Zoe, Mel, Katie and Caroline are sitting on the lawn eating pretzels and analyzing the passersby at the same time. All the students are talking about the new student. A mysterious young man in black walks in the distance. He has a flying cat on his shoulder

KATIE (holding up the stick) - Attention, attention! A new god has landed at school! And he's got a cat with him... but it defies gravity. Somebody pinch me!

MEL (in awe) - Is that the new boy? And... next to him... do you see what comes flying in, or is it just me?

KATIE - Holy.... I see it too. Or is it a CAT?!

MEL - That cat is flying, Katie. It's flying. Either it's a hologram or... the scientific world is hiding something from us!

CAROLINE (crosses her arms) - Nonsense. Cats don't fly. But if he can fly and kick... I respect that (Zoe stands up, examining Jasper carefully. Jasper is dressed in black, his long coat flapping gently in the wind. Next to him, hovering in the air, is Mia - a cat with jet black eyes and a sly look).

ZOE (squinting) - Yes, girls, we all see the same thing. There's something weird about this. My witch spark is officially on fire. This... this is not a normal boy. He has an aura. I swear, that boy... even in the shadows he glows. And I'm... I'm determined to figure it out.

ZOE (inner voice) - Eye contact, Witches' secret room, spaghetti fight and now... a mysterious boy with a flying cat. I think my ordinary days are officially over.

(Jasper walks quietly into the classroom. There is a loud "ooo" from the crowd as he passes, but he doesn't seem to mind at all. Mia floats in the air and lands on Jasper's shoulder. Zoe squints her eyes and follows her like a spy).

Stage Library - Magical First Contact with Jasper

(Zoe enters the library. Whispers are heard between the shelves. Jasper is alone, calmly leafing through a book. Zoe glances at him from a shelf. Mia suddenly turns and looks at Zoe).

ZOE (whispers to herself) - Oops! The cat saw me! We made eye contact! This is... a violation of the secret espionage rule!

(Jasper looks up, speaking in a calm but deep voice)

JASPER - Looking is one thing... but trying to understand is another.

ZOE (stunned) - I... well... just... I mean...

JASPER (smiling slightly) - Don't worry. My cat Mia surprises many people. I'm used to it. Only students of the witch path can see her.

ZOE (inner voice) - Okay. ZOE: Okay. Breathe, Zoe. No panic. You're just... talking to a handsome man who has fallen from the universe of madness and magic. That's all, calm down.

ZOE (out loud) - So, uh... are you... are you new? In this school... I mean... I'm here now. I mean, you're... you're here. (Pauses) Ah...

JASPER - Yes. I'm new. But some things... they've always been familiar to me. You're... You're not Zoe?

(Zoe's eyes pop out of their sockets.)

ZOE - How... how do you know my name?

JASPER (casually) - Amelia mentioned it. And... Mia trusts her intuition too. She recognized you immediately.

(The cat looks at Zoe once more and winks.)

ZOE (inner voice) - The cat approved me. I've officially been approved by a black cat! If this isn't... promotion in the witch world, what is?

Stage Girls' Backstage / Post-Library Crisis Meeting

(Zoe comes running to her friends. They are all at the cafeteria table. She is holding a wad of notes and an expression of panic).

ZOE - Girls! The new boy is Jasper! He knows my name! His cat flies! And he told me "some things are familiar from the past"! It's either reincarnation or... magical fate matching!

MEL - Flying cat plus mysterious phrases? I think it could have fallen either from another universe or from the Marvel universe.

KATIE (puts her hands on her heart) - Ahhh... I dream about these things too, but I get jealous when it happens to other people. Is that bad?

CAROLINE - So he's cool. But too cool. The cat part still bothers me. Let's do a test: Let's shine a laser at that cat, if it runs after him, it's normal.

ZOE - Amelia knows something. That woman is too comfortable with this child. And the other day she said to me... "A hidden power has awakened, Zoe." Maybe Jasper too... is it part of the same cycle?

End of Scene / Closing Whisper: Amelia's Message

(Zoe returns to the library. She finds a small note among her books. The handwriting is familiar: Amelia's.)

"Zoe, I told you the witches' chamber mystery was just the beginning. But now... the stars are aligning. Tomorrow night at 4:00 in the old music room. First meeting of the Witches Club. Only those with magical potential are allowed. Jasper is invited."

ZOE (inner voice) - Jasper... The Witches Club... And this time I'm not just an observer, this magic journey has officially begun.

(Zoe) It's night. Zoe is in bed, tossing and turning under the blankets. She is hugging a pillow, her eyes on the ceiling. The room is faintly lit by a blue night lamp. The pile of books in the corner seems to be watching her).

ZOE (inner voice) - In exactly 24 hours... I've evolved from an ordinary, socially anxious high school student to "possibly a potential witch." My heart skipped a beat when Hunter looked at me, I threw pasta in Caroline's face, and... I borrowed a spell book from the witch room. Oh, and... there's a flying cat at school. THIS WAS DEFINITELY NOT A NORMAL DAY.

(Suddenly he pulls his nose out from under the blanket.)

ZOE - I wonder where Lili didn't pick me up? Maybe I could start my own magic school. Members: me, lots of books and of course... Lili and Umbra, spaghetti.

The Next Morning

(Zoe walks through the school corridors and finds a small note tucked into her bag. The handwriting is familiar: Amelia's. And it's written with a glitter pen.)

NOT:

Don't forget there's a Secret Witch Club meeting today at 4:00 p.m. in the Old Music Room. You'll be sorry if you miss it. Only those with magical potential are allowed.

P.S: Jasper is invited. (Yes, the boy with the cat.)

ZOE - Amelia, you're a really great guide. But I'm a bad student. I got a C on my PE exam, I can't believe it!

Scene: Old Music Room / Secret Witches Club (Zoe opens the door. The room is almost deserted, but there is a strange magical energy in it. An old metronome vibrates on the dusty piano. Witch symbols, old records, crystals on the shelves. A table in the center. People sitting around the table: Amelia, Jasper... and Mel, Caroline and Katie)

ZOE - Mel, Katie? What are you girls doing here? This is supposed to be a secret club! Isn't there a password or something?

MEL (playing with his helmet) - Amelia caught me this morning. "You have an extraordinary spirit," she said. I said, "Thanks, but I'm late for my climbing parkour test." Then Amelia said it would make me a better climber. I couldn't miss this opportunity. And here I am!

CAROLINE (crosses her arms) - She told me it was a real challenge. Where there is magic, there is danger. If there's danger, I'm there. You didn't think I'd leave you alone, did you?

KATIE (waving her hands excitedly) - My tarot card said "wizard"! Here's the thing: the card was upside down, but I thought positive, that's why I came!

(Zoe puts her head in her hands.)

ZOE - I didn't know you worked with Katie Tarot?

KATIE - Let's say I'm slowly playing a little bit... It's nice to learn new things and the future of a relationship!

ZOE - Great. My clan is here in full force. And we're at a secret meeting of witches. Uh, sure. I don't see why not. This must be destiny!

(Amelia sits at the table with mystical solemnity. Jasper is silent, his cat Mia is curled up asleep on the piano).

Amelia's Explanation

AMELIA - Today you will take your first magical test. But this is not just a "work your magic" day. You will be tested by the power of your heart. Today's task: to find the lost SPHERE OF TIME.

(Everyone is silent for a moment. Katie raises her hand.)

KATIE - Is this... time travel or something? Because I want to take back my haircut mistake from last month.

AMELIA (smiling) - The orb keeps magic in balance. Without it, spells break, time slips, cakes explode before they are baked, people... wake up at the wrong age.

ZOE - So... like going to sleep as a child in the morning and waking up as a grandmother in the afternoon?

JASPER (finally speaking, his voice soft but expressive) - Mia traced the orb. It's in the gym. But there is a spell of protection surrounding it. It can only be crossed with an honest intention from the heart.

MEL - So can we climb up and get him?

CAROLINE - I want to try to bypass the protection spell with a punch.

KATIE - I... confess my love. Maybe this orb will melt?

ZOE (inner voice) - Am I out of my mind or are these people really ready to do magic?

Night Mission Gym Operation

(Everyone gathers at school at night. Mel has brought rope, a flashlight and nuts. Katie came in a pink sparkly t-shirt).

CAROLINE (whispers) - "Bright pink" for undercover work, Katie?

KATIE (brazenly) - I'm sorry. I'm not the only thing that glows in the dark: love glows too!

(They open the door quietly. Time sphere floating in the center of the gymnasium. A ring of blue light around it. The air is slightly electric. Everyone looks mesmerized).

ZOE (whispers) - This thing... it's like a magical disco ball..

CAROLINE - Okay, I'll take the first try. Let's see how tough this asshole is. Hai yaaaaaa !!!

Caroline jumps up and gives a powerful kick to the blue ring surrounding the time sphere. She is thrown back with the same force.

CAROLINE - Aaaaaah! The damn thing is so hard!

Katie helps Caroline, who has fallen to the ground, to her feet.

MEL - Well, nice try. Now it's my turn!

Mel throws the rope and fixes it to a point on the ceiling. Then she grabs the rope, pulls herself up and jumps onto the time sphere. But the blue ring of light envelops Mel and throws him back.

KATIE - OK, I'll give my turn to Zoe, I can't take another broken nail today!

(Everyone steps back. Zoe comes forward. She decides to say what is in her heart).

ZOE (out loud) - I... I want to do magic because in my heart I want to do good things. I am ready to face myself. I'm not here to be popular, I'm here to add a little light to the world, to make a difference.

(A moment of silence. Then: the energy ring begins to crackle... and disappears. The orb floats into Zoe's palms. A faint glow spreads).

MEL (in shock) - You did it... you did it.

KATIE (presses her hands to her chest) - I feel so happy that even my tears are silvery.

CAROLINE - This is... very emotional. Write it down. Even I'm moved. (Recovers with a short cough.)

JASPER (with a slight smile) - That was the moment... the moment when a witch's heart shines. Welcome, Zoe.

ZOE (in a whisper) - I think... I'm really on this path now.

Surprise Ending The Whisper Behind the Mirror

(Daisy in an empty hallway. She leans towards the mirror. A strange whisper rises from the mirror. Shiny, sharp nails rub against the mirror.)

Zoe has the orb. But this battle is not her game to win. You're the real queen, Daisy...

DAISY (to herself, with a wry smile) - I played the game according to the rules, but now it's time to change the game.

CHAPTER 6 - MAGICAL DREAMS AND BODY SWAP CHAOS

Night - Zoe's Room

(Zoe lies on her back on her bed, putting down the pen after writing in her diary. Her eyelids are heavy. The camera slowly approaches her eyes. Suddenly colors flash, the scene changes).

ZOE (inner voice) - Yesterday about the witch room... it's still on my mind. Being a witch? Me? I'm the girl who put cumin in my coffee instead of sugar the day before! And now... I'm practicing magic... like consciously... I guess?

DREAM BEGINS - Witches' Ball and Flying Bunnies

(Zoe appears in a large, glittering ballroom. Bright bunnies flying on the ceiling, people dancing on the floor, magic drinks... Everything is like a dream.)

ZOE - (looking around, puzzled) Well... this is definitely not a school prom.

(Hunter approaches, dressed as a handsome prince. A golden cloak on his shoulder, a shining rose in his hand.)

HUNTER - Zoe! My queen! Tonight is your night and yours alone.

ZOE - (eyes wide, inner voice) OK, I am very happy now and I have definitely lost control of my subconscious.

(Caroline karate chops a monster on stage while spinning like a giant samurai. Katie soars through the sky with pink fairies. Mel plays electric guitar on a giant climbing wall. Flames shoot out of his guitar).

MEL - (Shouting) If we're in a dream, why not turn it into a concert?

(Jasper appears out of nowhere, holding a glowing orb. Next to him is Mia the flying cat).

JASPER - Zoe. It's a dream. But please be careful... some spells can pass from dream to reality.

ZOE - Beautiful. Magical warning in a dream. That's wonderful.

(Suddenly the ballroom lights dim. A reflection appears in the mirrors: Daisy. Her eyes are black, her voice echoes).

DAISY (in a dark voice) - Power... will change you, Zoe. You can't escape me even in your dreams.

ZOE - Okay. That scared me enough. Now where's the fucking wake-up button?

The entire ballroom disintegrates in an explosion of yellow sparkles and plunges into darkness. Zoe falls asleep.

Morning - A Beginning Gone Wrong - Souls and Bodies Swapped Places.

(Zoe wakes up suddenly. She gets out of bed and goes to the mirror. When she looks at her face in the mirror, she does not recognize herself. She looks at herself again and controls her face with her hands in panic).

ZOE - AAAAAAA! THAT'S ME, THAT'S NOT MY FACE! THAT'S... Am I MEL? WHAT'S GOING ON?!!!?

(The body in the mirror is Mel's, but the voice is still Zoe's...)

School - Bodies and souls have switched places and everything has gone haywire.

(Mel, Caroline, Jasper and "Zoe" meet at school in Katie's body. They all speak in each other's voices. They are thoroughly confused).

MEL (in Zoe voice) - Guys, does anyone know what's going on? We definitely cast the wrong spell last night. Was that reverse witch yoga?

CAROLINE (in Katie's voice) - No. No. (Katie's voice) - No. No. (Katie's voice) - No. I can't go to sparring class with that voice. I want to kick myself!

KATIE (in Caroline's voice, with tears in her eyes) - I... I'm so hard right now. My heart is cotton, but on the outside... like a terminator!

ZOE (in Melin's voice) - I saw this in my dream. It definitely has something to do with Daisy. There was a reflection in the mirror... a Daisy with dark eyes. She whispered to me through the mirror.

JASPER - This is... definitely a "Transcendence of Consciousness Spell." It could have been triggered by a dream. And if someone unknowingly cast the spell... things will get even more complicated. Today is going to be a very challenging day!

School Day: All the girls' roles have changed. The girls try to get used to their new bodies.

(The scene shifts quickly to show the school day. Everyone is confused.)

LITERATURE

TEACHER - Mel, could you please read this love poem?

MEL (in Zoe's voice, reading dramatically): - "My heart is bubbling like a teapot... Oh well, I can't do this, forgive me"

CLASS - (Everyone freezes. Only one or two people applaud.)

PHYSICAL EDUCATION:

TEACHER - Caroline, come on, show me a great kick!

CAROLINE (shouts in Katie's voice) - KARATEEEEEEEE!!! HIYAAAAA!!!

(Caroline falls like a beginner. The teacher drops the ball. Silence. Then... applause.)

STUDENT - Caroline... you are even more dangerous with your softness.

LUNCHROOM

(Zoe sits with Mel's body. Hunter comes to her.)

HUNTER - Hi, Mel. You look very... interesting today.

ZOE (in Mel's body, stammers) - I... I mean Mel... well... you want some of my pasta?

(Hunter stops, laughs in surprise.)

HUNTER - Well... you are full of surprises as always!

Evening - Witch Room - Plan to Return to the Dream World

(Amelia gathers them all in the witch room. Jasper is stroking his cat. Mia hisses and turns on a light).

ZOE - Amelia, how can we solve this? By the way, I apologize to all of you for causing this confusion.

KATIE- It's not your fault, honey, don't upset yourself.

AMELIA - We can ask Asteria, so let's put our hands together and call Asteria.

Mel, Caroline, Jasper, Zoe, Katie, Amelia join hands in the center of the room and form a circle. Together they call out and call Asteria

" ASTERIA! ASTERIA! SHOW US ASTERIA! OPEN THE SECRETS!

In the center of the circle, Asteria appears in the air with her wings shining white lights.

ASTERIA -The spell may have been triggered by Daisy's shadow energy in the dream. Zoe's heart unconsciously captured that energy. But there is a solution: You must return to the dream together. All of you.

AMELIA - And how can we do that?

ASTERIA - It's very difficult for one person. But it can be done by working together. All of you concentrate, focus. You will succeed.

MEL - If it's a dream journey, I'm ready! There was a great climbing wall in the dream, I still remember it.

CAROLINE - I'm ready to do whatever it takes to get back in the body. It's hard to even speak with this voice.

KATIE (in Caroline's voice, humming) - I'm going to miss that voice... I feel confident.

Dream Journey - The Great Encounter

(In the witch room everyone meditates. They focus their minds. They return to the dream world. Daisy is waiting for them. But this Daisy is different. Her eyes are full, her face is filled with regret).

DAISY - I... I was jealous of you. I was jealous that you had real friendship. I always... felt lonely. But I hurt you unintentionally.

ZOE - Daisy... being jealous doesn't make you a bad person. But making amends, apologizing. It makes you strong.

MEL - Besides, we can still love you. Maybe we can climb the mountain together? What do you think? We could do that, really.

CAROLINE - As long as you're honest, there's always a chance.

KATIE - Right now I really... my heart is like a butterfly. Or... like a ninja! I'm so happy.

The sphere shines with a great light. Bodies Change Places. Everyone returns to their former selves.

School - New Beginning in the Garden

(They are all sitting in the school garden. They are laughing, a little tired but happy).

MEL - Being in Zoe's body... it was so perfumed. Tears in my eyes, but with love. Zoe, Grandma Lili's creams are wonderful!

KATIE - I know karate now. I hit the teacher when I tried to hit the ball without meaning to. But everyone called it "self-confidence".

CAROLINE - And I... I learned that it's okay to be a little bit softer, maybe just a little bit.

ZOE - And I... I found that dreams can be not only strange, but instructive and dangerous. And sometimes very funny.

JASPER - Getting to know you better... was more fun than I thought it would be. You're all great!

(Hunter looks at Zoe from a distance, winks.)

HUNTER - We meet again, pretty-eyed girl.

Zoe smiles happily and waves to Hunter.

ZOE (inner voice) - This story is just beginning. And I think... I'm becoming a really cool witch.

CHAPTER 7 - DAISY'S SECRET AND THE LIBRARY LABYRINTH

First Light and Whispering Secrets

(The school corridors are noisy as usual).

KATIE (holding tarot cards) - I still haven't gotten over yesterday's dream of changing bodies. Today the cards said "balance"... Or it could be "lose my fucking balance", I'm not sure.

CAROLINE - I still wince when I hear my voice. You can't manage to be tough with Katie's voice. Instead of "Come on, guys, hit me!" it's like "Come on, sweeties, give me a kiss!"

MEL - Zoe, remember Hunter's royal dance in the dream? They hung me up with a guitar! Scandalous!

ZOE (laughing but absent-minded) - Yes, but I think that dream was a sign of something... Especially Daisy at the end. She's hiding something.

The Library - In Search of a Secret Passage

(During her lunch break, Zoe follows a strange feeling to the library. As she moves between the shelves, she hears a noise. One of the books pulls slightly. A thin passage appears on the wall behind Zoe).

ZOE (curiously) - Is this... a secret passage? We have the most mysterious school in this country! Hey guys, look what I found!

(The others follow him. Jasper holds a crystal and analyzes the energy of the door).

JASPER - These symbols are... engraved with lunar magic. It only opens with an emotional connection. Zoe, this place reacted because of you.

CAROLINE - If someone had told me there was a secret maze at school, I would have just said, "Yes, there is, and Katie went in by mistake."

KATIE - I got lost in that hallway once, I accidentally went into the principal's office! I think he has a secret too, the principal must be an alien.

Inside the Labyrinth - The Magical Journey Begins

(The portal opens. When the team enters, they find a labyrinth with high ceilings, filled with bookshelves and sparkling with crystals. The atmosphere is intense, but mesmerizing).

MEL (looking at the wall) - Is there a heart shape on this stone? Or did an old witch get stuck on Snapchat?

(Suddenly the dim light moves and Daisy emerges from the shadows. She has mixed emotions on her face).

DAISY - This place... is my secret. But I don't want to run anymore.

ZOE - Daisy? Are you... the guardian of this labyrinth?

DAISY - I'm not the protector. But maybe... I've been the cause. This darkness has accumulated here. And I kept it inside me for years.

CAROLINE - Did you keep it inside? Girl, you're so full of troubles! At least get it off your chest and relax!

DAISY (smiles slightly) - My family has kept the witchcraft tradition hidden for generations. But loneliness, jealousy and fear... they all built up and I called on the darkness.

JASPER - That's why our dreams got mixed up. The energy you unconsciously emitted reached us.

DAISY - Zoe... Your light has stirred this darkness. And this is perhaps the intersection of our destinies.

Mini Mission: "Mirror of Fear"

(A bright mirror suddenly appears in a corner of the labyrinth. The mirror quickly absorbs one of them, Caroline.)

KATIE (screams) - Hey mirror Caroline got it! She sucked it up and swallowed it. Help!

All the girls and Jasper gather around the mirror.

CAROLINE (shouts through the mirror) - Girls! I'm here! A memory I had forgotten as a child came back to me! My mother told me I was "too emotional"... I guess I had suppressed the soft side in me!

ZOE - This is... a space to face the past. Let's save Caroline.

(Together they form a magic circle in front of the mirror. Zoe whispers what is in her heart).

ZOE - Magic... is not just power. It's the courage to face yourself. That's why we're here together. Mirror let her go, if you can help Asteria, now is the time!

The pressure of the young witches makes the mirror dissolve. As Asteria flies through the air, she directs her power beam at the mirror.

(The mirror dissolves and Caroline returns. Her eyes are full, but her face is softer).

CAROLINE - Okay... maybe... maybe I cried while petting a cat.

MEL - So you have a sentimental side! Another job done!

Old Book - Daisy's Way

The young witches walk a long way through the labyrinth and finally reach the center. In the center of the maze, on an old table, there is a leather-bound book. Zoe turns the pages. The book glows. The information inside is not just written; it is felt.

DAISY - This book... is my family's past, their mistakes and my legacy. But that's not all I am anymore.

AMELIA (visible) - And now, together, we have a new story to write. When hearts come together, darkness gives way to love.

JASPER - This book is not just history. It's a second chance.

Final Scene - In the Light of the Labyrinth

(Everyone holds their hands. The light of the book spreads. The labyrinth lights up. Doors open.)

ZOE - We are all different, but together we are strong. And that... that's real magic!

DAISY (smiling slowly) - Now, instead of being ashamed of my past, I want to make peace with it.

MEL - Wow... this story would definitely win an Emmy if it was a reality show.

KATIE - Or a magical musical! Imagine: "LOVE in the Library Labyrinth!"

CAROLINE - Katie... be quiet. But... you might be right this time.

(They all come out of the maze together. They step into a sunny spring day. Zoe closes with a sigh).

ZOE - Sometimes magic comes from a book, sometimes from a mirror, sometimes from a wound in your heart. But what heals it... is love and friendship.

EPISODE 7 - Shadows and Light: The Endless Cycle of Magic

Pale morning light and looming threat

(Schoolyard. Autumn leaves are gently blowing. Zoe is sitting on the grass, writing in her diary.)

ZOE (inner voice): "The maze, Daisy's secret, the old magic. We thought everything was solved, but there's a chill in me. It's like... the shadows are still here."

(Suddenly Hunter appears. Again, his shirt collar is slightly disheveled, but his gaze is serious).

HUNTER: "Zoe... Have you noticed? There's spontaneous writing on the classroom blackboards. And last night, the school bells rang at midnight. No one can explain it."

ZOE (stretches): "I don't know about this, Hunter. Maybe everything is just a joke. If there is a danger... it's like the threat is not from the outside. It's rising from within."

(Hunter frowns. A crow flies in the distance with a high-pitched cry.)

SCENE 2: Dark Signs in School Corridors

STUDENT 1: "I saw a blackboard in the hallway writing by itself! The writing erased itself!"

STUDENT 2: "From inside my closet came the whisper, 'without light, you perish'!"

(Zoe and her friends gather. Daisy is silent, her eyes gazing around with an indecisive look).

DAISY: "This... could be because of me. The darkness inside me still hasn't found peace."

MEL (crosses arms): "So let's fight to destroy it. Let's take up brooms!"

CAROLINE: "Let's beat the shit out of these shadows that have entered our territory! I'm not kidding, I'm ready to try."

KATIE (while spraying perfume): "I wrap it with love and drown it in the scent of roses. No one can stop my romantic approach to darkness."

JASPER (smiles): "I think it's all worth a try and it can work if it comes from the heart."

SCENE 3: Secret Meeting in the Library and Roadmap

(Amelia arrives with an antique book. The book almost seems to breathe on its own).

AMELIA: "This book contains the oldest legends of our school of magic. And it says: 'To fight the darkness, do not reject it. Understand him. Find it and destroy it'"

ZOE: "So... we have to accept not only the darkness but also the fears within ourselves?"

AMELIA: "Yes, Zoe. Real magic is about inner balance... not just mambo cambo words."

(Zoe shakes her head, but a new determination shines in her eyes).

MEL- Since he said find him, we should look for him.

CAROLINE: Yes, let's look all over the school. We're sure to find something.

SCENE 4: Facing the Shadows - Legendary Magic Room

(The team searches the school and finds a cobwebbed door in the oldest part of the school. On the door is the following inscription: "You can't understand what light is until you face the shadows.")

MEL (blows the dust with her hand): "Wow... That's definitely a good sentence. Not bad at all!"

(When the door opens, mist fills the room. Inside, portraits lining the walls turn their eyes to the team. The ceiling is covered with glowing symbols).

ZOE (whispers): "These portraits... are they staring at us?

CAROLINE (cracking her knuckles): "This room is starting to scare even me. Fear is real."

DAISY (approaching one of the portraits): "This is... my grandmother. She was one of the Witch Council. But she succumbed to the darkness. Maybe this is her warning..."

SCENE 5: Chest, Light and Confrontation

(There is a chest in the center of the room. Jasper unlocks it with magic. Whispers come out of it).

JASPER (looks at notes): "These texts describe the magic of transforming inner shadows. But... it won't work until everyone faces their own inner voice."

ZOE (decisively): "Then let's start now."

(They all form a circle. Hands join hands. Amelia closes her eyes.)

AMELIA: "Now, each of you, think about the dark emotion that frightens you the most. Do not destroy it. Embrace it with compassion and try to understand it..."

(Suddenly one of the portraits glows. A child's voice echoes from inside Zoe).

ZOE (with tears in her eyes): "I... when I was little I was always invisible... I wanted to be heard, to be noticed... so I clung to magic..."

DAISY (tears in her eyes): "And I... was always afraid of being alone. I clung to the darkness because the light was so far away..."

(As everyone in the circle speaks in their inner voices, the magic symbols in the room begin to glow one by one.)

SCENE 6: Dispersion of Shadows and Awakening of Light

(The magic circle suddenly glows, creating a column of light in the center of the room. The portraits on the walls seem to be smiling.)

JASPER: "We did it. The darkness was not only fear... It was also guidance."

MEL: "And now, I'm ready for the broom fight! Yes, we had dramatic emotions, but where is the action scene!"

CAROLINE: "Mel, you're the first person to say 'let's fight with the broom' right after you've meditated and calmed down. Congratulations."

KATIE: "I'm still crying too, but this time... from happiness!"

EPILOG - Infinite Loop and New Horizons

(As the team leaves the room, the sun is about to set. The sky is a mixture of lavender and gold. Hunter is waiting there).

HUNTER (smiling): "You are the most interesting team this school has seen in years. And Zoe, you... shine. If you're done, why don't we have a coffee? "

ZOE (laughing lightly): "Thanks Hunter. A coffee would be great. Now I realize that shadows and light... one is incomplete without the other. The real magic... is right here. In our hearts, in friendship and courage."

(As the team walks away, the door to the old magic room closes by itself in the background. As if ready for a new cycle).

AMELIA (in a whisper): "And the journey... is just beginning."

Episode 8 - The Knot of Destiny: Legacy from the Past

The Journey That Begins in the Silence of the Morning

In the backyard of the school, as the first rays of the sun glistened off the dew that had fallen during the night, Zoe walked quietly with her leather-bound antique book in her hand. Her cloak fluttered in the breeze, and the excitement inside her made her heart beat faster.

ZOE (inner voice, determined)

"This is not just an old book... This is a compass of who I am, who I can be. I am no longer afraid of the shadows. This time, I will go after the past."

He was startled by the sound of footsteps behind him. Mel, Caroline, Katie, Jasper and Daisy had caught up with him.

MEL (holding a donut)

"You're going on an adventure without us? I also brought snacks. It's important to carb up and get your blood sugar up before you untie the knot of destiny."

CAROLINE (with a wry smile)

"As long as the spell doesn't explode. The last time I made an egg spell recipe, we made the kitchen look like a lava-spewing volcano crater."

KATIE (admiring the book)

"Is there anything romantic in this book? I mean, if it's got love spells and stuff... I can just read it!"

DAISY (quieter, but with a warm sound)

"Maybe this book is the answer for all of us... not just Zoe."

JASPER (feeling the energy of the book, seriously)

"This is... a point of confrontation with the past. Are we ready?"

Zoe nodded. Together they headed for the old workshop.

Old Workshop On the Trail of Legacy

When they arrived at the workshop, the light streaming in through the broken windows made the dust particles on the floor dance. Cobwebs hung from the ceiling and faded symbols of magic appeared on the walls. The atmosphere was both peaceful and creepy.

MEL (trying to share a donut with a spider)

"I think this spider winked at me. Maybe it's an old wizard reincarnation?"

CAROLINE

"No, Mel, he's just looking for bread crumbs. Please don't flirt with him."

In the corner, an old chest vibrated gently under the dusty cover. Zoe opened the book, the glowing symbols guided her to the chest. She ran her fingers over the carvings on the chest. The name "Liora" appeared: Zoe's great-grandmother's name.

ZOE (excitedly, holding her breath)

"This is... his place... the traces of my blood... are here."

When the chest was opened, ancient magical tools, faded letters and a mysterious talisman came out. The amulet glowed with warmth when touched. One of the letters was read aloud:

ZOE (trembling while reading)

"Magic is not only in words; it is in choices. To fight the darkness, you must first find the light in your heart. Love is the most ancient power."

Secrets of Destiny and Emotional Confrontation

Daisy's eyes misted up as she watched the letters. She began to speak quietly.

DAISY

"I... I was raised with magic too, but in my family there was fear, not love. I did wrong things. I didn't mean to hurt you, but... I lost my way."

KATIE (hugging)

"Anyone who has lost their way can go back home. We are here. Let's hug."

MEL (putting her arm around Daisy's shoulder)

"I like emotional scenes. Also, if you have dark energy... I have endless bursts of energy. We're balanced!"

CAROLINE (smiling)

"We carry each other's burdens. I'll even carry some of it if you want."

JASPER

"Magic begins with honesty. And Daisy, you have done the greatest magic here today: confessing with honesty."

Turning Point Talisman of the Heart

Zoe lifted the amulet with both hands. The glowing markings on the amulet cast a soft light over the team members. As the amulet surrounded them in a circle, everyone closed their eyes and whispered their intentions.

ZOE

"I want to find my true self, with love, without fear..."

DAISY

"I want to forgive my past and start again."

MEL

"I want to use my energy only for good!"

CAROLINE

"Let courage and love rule my heart, not callous hardness."

KATIE

"I want to shine with love! Both spiritually and aesthetically!"

JASPER

"I want to be strong with real friendships, not alone."

The amulet sent a beam of light towards the sky. The windows of the workshop trembled, the symbols glowed and an invisible applause echoed, as if the ancient wizards were approving them from afar.

Epilogue - Towards the Future

When they left the workshop, the sun was shining in all its splendor. A rainbow of light seemed to pass over them. Zoe's eyes no longer held only magic, but belonging and hope.

HUNTER (approaching)

"I think your work is done. If no one says no, can I have it? Your light will brighten my future, Zoe."

ZOE (smiling, inner voice)

"This is not the end... just the beginning of a bigger story. Now I know what magic is, and together we will show what it can become."

They laughed happily with their friends as they crossed the stony road to school. There was no longer just magic between them, but real bonds.

Episode 8 - New Horizons: Rise of a Witch

First Light and a New Beginning

As the schoolyard was bathed in the golden light of the morning sun, Zoe walked with her antique book pressed to her chest. Her amulet hung around her neck at heart level. Beside her were Mel's energetic stride, Caroline's confident posture, Katie's pink glowing glasses and Daisy's refreshed expression. Jasper was quiet and attentive, but his eyes scanned his surroundings as if they were a magic map.

ZOE (inner voice): "Now we have untied the knot of destiny. This power is not mine alone. There is a light in our hearts that transforms magic when we beat together. And I... am born a witch."

Threat at the Door Energy Awakening in the Park

In the afternoon, strange energy fluctuations appeared in an old park in the city. There was a faint purplish glow in the sky, and sparks appeared in the air as leaves fell to the ground.

MEL (jumping up): "This is either going to be a lot of fun... or we're in trouble! Either way, I'm in!"

JASPER (with a serious expression): "This spell... sounds like an ancient call. It may be retesting the balance."

CAROLINE (crossing her arms): "If there's a fucking shadow again, I want to punch it. But magic punch, this time."

KATIE (tossing her hair in the wind): "I've dreamed of sending balls of pink light up my arms. Maybe this time?"

DAISY (with a determined expression): "I don't want to succumb to my past anymore. In this new threat, I want to take the first step."

Enchanted Park: Echo of Souls

As the team moved deeper into the park, nature became silent. Symbols on the trunks of trees glowed blue-blue, shadows moved across the grass. In the center was a slightly cracked structure made of old stones.

JASPER: "This must be the 'Stone of Ascension'. In legends, it is the place where a witch is summoned when she reaches her full potential..."

ZOE (stroking the stone with his hand): "This place... somewhere inside me it's familiar. It's as if the past and the future meet here."

Suddenly, whispers were heard from inside the structure. Shimmering figures of spirits appeared in the light wind. Transparent but distinct... Old witches, old guardians, as if from centuries ago.

SPIRIT 1: "Zoe... you are not alone. Our legacy will be reborn in your light."

SPIRIT 2: "Magic is not a lonely battle. Steps taken with love are the purest form of magic."

Ritual and Ascension

As the spirits began to swirl around, the team formed a circle. Hands clasped. The amulet began to glow rhythmically in Zoe's heart.

AMELIA (from a distance, smiling with tears): "This is the beginning of a new era. Those who pass through the darkness reach the light."

ZOE (loudly): "I am Zoe. I am now the inheritor of my past, the guardian of the future, and true magic... begins within us."

Suddenly, the sky shone with silvery light. A pillar of light formed in the center of the Ascension Stone. The emotion that each team member carried within them merged with this light.

Resentment, hope, love, courage, loyalty and joy. They all met at the same point.

MEL (laughing): "All this magic has made me burst with energy! I may glow soon, I tell you!"

CAROLINE: "For the first time I got tears in my eyes without a fight scene. Emergency! Emotional Caroline mode activated!"

KATIE: "My heart beats like confetti! This light... looks like love!"

DAISY (eyes full but smiling): "The first time I looked into the darkness, I wasn't afraid, because I'm not alone."

JASPER: "This is not just a ritual... it is a true ascension. The power born when hearts unite."

Epilogue - New Day Shining on the Horizon

As the sun was setting, the team stopped at the exit of the park. Each of them fixed their eyes on a spot, watching the scenery with some admiration, some peace. Gradually the light of the park faded, but the light born in their hearts would never go out.

ZOE (inner voice): "A new way... a new understanding of witchcraft. This is just the beginning. Our story doesn't end here. It begins now."

Episode 9 - Sacred Balance: Nature, Man and Magic

The True Power at the Heart of Nature ???

First Breath of the Morning: Rendezvous with Nature

The morning sun slowly descended over the schoolyard, casting a soft golden light over everything. Zoe put her amulet around her neck as she placed the antique book in her backpack. Her eyes were full of hope. Mel, Caroline, Katie, Jasper, Daisy were with her. Each wore capes in different but matching colors - Mel's was patched and full of pockets, Katie's was decorated with glowing hearts.

ZOE:

"This time we are going not just to cast spells... but to touch the heart of magic. The balance of nature is like a mirror inside us."

MEL (shouting, spreading her hands to her sides):

"Are we ready, team witches? There's adventure, there's nature, there's mud, there's bugs... and there's definitely the feeling that something is going to happen to me!"

CAROLINE (rolling her eyes):

"If a leaf touches my hair during this hike, I will turn the culprit directly into a frog."

KATIE (jumping on her tiptoes):

"I love nature! I especially look forward to talking to the mysterious spirits that whisper in the heart of flowers!"

JASPER (seriously):

"Nature is not only beauty. It is also a test. It reminds us of ourselves. And... we are likely to be attacked by squirrels. Be prepared."

DAISY (with a sincere smile): "This time I am not running away, I am ready to face myself, nature and my past."

Heart of the Forest Awakening of the Elements

The group left the school and headed towards the legendary "Equinox Forest" outside the city. As soon as they entered the path, a strange hum replaced the birdsong. The air suddenly changed; the trees were denser, the leaves brighter.

MEL (holding the compass upside down):

"Either this compass is mocking me or... the north has decided to disguise itself today."

KATIE (as she spreads her arms and turns around):

"Look! The trees are telling me something. Or maybe it's just my pollen allergy... but it feels so magical!"

Deep in the forest, a gigantic oak tree towered. Beneath it, a moss-covered stone structure... On it shone the symbols of the four elements: ☼ Fire, ☽ Water, ☾ Air and ☽ Earth.

DAISY (in a whisper, holding out her hand to the symbols):

"This... is where the spirits keep their balance. This is... the essence of magic."

Element Ritual: Journey to Inner Balance

Amelia appeared out of nowhere. Out of the shadows, but as if born from the forest itself.

AMELIA: "Magic that is not in harmony with nature is out of balance. Each of you represents an element. And each represents an aspect within you."

The ritual has begun. The team formed a circle. The symbols of the elements slowly came alive in the air. Jasper called for fire - sparks from his hands warmed the forest. Katie summoned water - flowers bloomed from the ground with the light from her palms. Caroline harnessed the wind - with strong breezes blowing her cloak. Mel stepped barefoot on the earth and put her energy into the ground.

ZOE:

"I am... all of them. If I balance my heart... all the elements can unite."

Its talisman began to glow. The book opened by itself. A pillar of light rising from the pages enveloped the branches of the tree. Colors swirled, the forest breathed.

ZOE (loudly):

"Nature, man and magic are one! Light and shadow, love and fear, past and future merge here!"

Talking to Spirits and a Brief Crisis

Suddenly, old witch spirits appeared around them. Transparent, shimmering silhouettes.

SPIRIT (in the voice of an old woman): "My children... you have finally found the right path."

MEL (in panic):

"Look at me... I'm a good witch, I'm good with spirits, but... please don't fly at me!"

SPIRIT (laughing):

"Your heart is strong, funny and pure... The spirits are pleased with you."

CAROLINE (dumbfounded):

"Am I... approved now? Do the spirits... love me?!"

Final Ritual and the Seal of Nature

The spirits put a drop of light in Zoe's hand. This was the "Seal of Nature". When it landed in Zoe's heart, all the elements spun around it and formed a spiral. At that moment, Zoe's eyes glowed like gold for a brief moment.

AMELIA:

"Zoe, the voice of nature is with you now. Magic is no longer just a power for you, but a responsibility."

CAROLINE:

"I can't wait to see what you can do with this power, but I already know... you are the witch this world needs."

Epilogue - The Road to Balance

Leaves danced beneath their feet as they returned from the forest. The sunset painted the sky a magical orange. Zoe felt the talisman over her heart as she walked along, accompanied by the laughter of her friends.

ZOE (inner voice):

"Nature, man and magic... all united in my heart. This is just the beginning. And now I'm... a really cool witch."

Episode 10 - Mysterious Darkness: In the Shadow of Old Enemies

Scene 1: Foggy Morning and Fragile Silence

School morning... But this morning was different. The sun seemed to have disappeared behind a curtain of gray fog. Even the birds were silent and the air was almost too thick to breathe.

ZOE (with an inner voice, a feeling echoing in his heart):

"It is as if... even nature is silent. Could this silence be a harbinger of an approaching storm?"

At that moment Jasper appears at the entrance of the school, his eyes scanning the surroundings. He is the first of the team to speak.

JASPER (in a tone close to a whisper):

"This mist... is not normal. It belongs to an ancient magic. It's coming toward us."

CAROLINE (stretching her shoulders):

"Okay, just show me a target. Is it shadow? Darkness

KATIE (giggling but timidly): "I try to stay positive but... this weather is definitely not 'romantic clouds'."

Scene 2: Dark Signs and Echoes of the Past

At noon, strange symbols appear on the school's bulletin boards: shapes that look like black ink, spreading in waves...

JASPER (pointing to the computer screen):

"These symbols... Morwen's magic language. She was once a great witch. She drew her power from her anger."

DAISY (in a pensive but deep tone):

"I've heard stories about him. My mother used to talk about him in my dreams. A dark heart... but he was once in the light."

MEL (putting her hands on her waist):

"It is not difficult to understand someone who has carried darkness inside. We all have some shadow in us. But this much... too dark."

▲▲ Scene 3: Anticipated Encounter at the Abandoned Mansion

Under Jasper's guidance, the team gathers in an old moss-covered mansion on the outskirts of the city. Old symbols carved into the mansion's walls whisper in the wind.

ZOE (stroking the book in her hand):

"This place... hides the unresolved knots of the past. And now we've come to untie them."

The entrance door opens by itself. The air inside is dry, but charged with magic. Suddenly a shadow appears. A figure in a long cloak, with white eyes: Morwen.

MORWEN (in a freezing voice):

"You... still carry hope. How naive. How... weak."

ZOE (holding his head high):

"Our hope is not weakness. It is our greatest strength. The only way to deal with the darkness is to remember the light."

Morwen opens her arms, waves of dark energy spread through the mansion. The battle begins.

Scene 4: Epic Clash - Resistance with Light

Mel leaps from the ground and scatters Morwen's shadow chains:

"Acrobatics + magic = make Morwen regret it!"

Caroline repels creatures flying out of the walls with her magical fists:

"You're the shadow, I'm the lightning! You have no chance of winning!"

Katie soothes the spirit figures with love in her heart. Her voice resonates:

"I speak to the light! This love will never stop!"

Daisy breaks the magic ring by forgiving her past hurts:

"I understand you, Morwen. But we choose the path you don't!"

Jasper, forming a magic circle next to Zoe:

"To fight by your side... is my greatest courage."

By pressing the amulet to his heart, ZOE releases the light inside him:

"All shadows are born of loneliness. We come in friendship. And we defeat you not by forgetting... but by forgiving."

Morwen's face breaks. A tear falls from her eye... and then the energy from her body slowly dissipates into the air.

MORWEN (in a faint whisper):

"Maybe... once upon a time I could have felt like you..."

And the darkness dissipates.

Epilogue - Light Rising from the Ashes

At the end of the night, the team gathers outside the mansion in the moonlight. Everyone is quiet, but peaceful.

JASPER:

"We beat the darkness. But most importantly... we beat it by trying to understand it."

DAISY:

"I no longer fear my past, not even the memory of Morwen. It's just a lesson to be remembered."

MEL:

"So... we saved the world by fighting? Wow. This week has been really busy."

KATIE (laughing):

"Can we add a little romance? Haven't you noticed how Hunter is still staring at Zoe?!"

CAROLINE (raising her eyebrows):

"Did I fall in love with Morwen? He was so handsome in the light..."

ZOE (smiling, but sincerely):

"This is not just the end of a war. It was a way to rediscover who we are. And true magic comes from accepting who we are and holding on to each other."

Episode 11 - Eternal Return: Secrets of the Magic World

Scene 1: Light from the Dark Night

It is midnight. The abandoned mansion is surrounded by the rustling of rotten leaves. The mist rises from the ground, the moon only a faint silhouette. Zoe, her amulet around her neck, her antique book in her lap, moves silently. Behind her are Mel, Caroline, Katie, Jasper, Daisy. Each one both curious and wary.

ZOE (inner voice):

"Echoes of the past echo in my ears at every step. But I am no longer afraid, because I am not alone. Magic is no longer just a mystery... it is a journey."

MEL (in a whisper, but with typical energy):

"If this passage turns out to be the mouth of a giant crocodile, I'll tell you, I won't run. But I might yell a little."

CAROLINE (shrugs her shoulders):

"I hope something comes out. I am more afraid of silence. Silence seems to me like 'the monster is approaching'!"

Scene 2: Gateway - Symbols, Emotions and Keys

In the backyard of the mansion, the team encounters a huge stone gate. On it, magically engraved symbols glow flickeringly. In the center of the door is a spiral pattern... spinning like a wheel of prophecy.

DAISY (softly, touching the wall):

"This belongs to the gateway of magic descendants. My parents used to tell me... it opens only with the true voice of the heart."

JASPER (with scientific seriousness, scribbling in his notebook):

"The symbols represent four emotions: fear, hope, love and courage. If this is a test, we have to pass it with our emotions."

KATIE (putting her hands on her heart):

"Love is on me! Also... maybe if we add some pink light, it will open faster!"

Zoe takes out her amulet and reveals it. Amelia reads the ancient words aloud. The team joins hands and closes their eyes. The spell begins to work. The symbols on the door glow one by one... and the door slowly creaks open.

Scene 3: Eternal Return Chamber - Spirits, Light and Shadows

When they enter the door, they encounter a completely different world. A huge room decorated with crystals. There is no ceiling, just an endless night sky. An old table in the center, symbols that seem to revolve around it. Shadows slowly appearing on the walls... wizards of the past.

ZOE (in awe):

"This place... it's like the heart of magic. The spirits live here. They watch over us."

DAISY (wide-eyed):

"I've felt I belonged here for years. Now I understand. My family belonged here. And I... am the continuation of that story."

KATIE (touching the walls in surprise):

"This... this wall reminds me of my mother's warmth! This is not only a house of magic, but also of emotions!"

Scene 4: Return Ritual and the True Form of Magic

The team forms a circle around the table. Zoe opens a glowing page in the center of the book. It's a spell titled "Ritual of Eternal Return":

ZOE (loudly):

"Light and shadow, past and future... unite with the sound of our hearts! Let the eternal return begin!"

The talisman begins to glow. The colored lights emanating from each of their hearts (orange for Mel, grey-blue for Caroline, pink for Katie, golden yellow for Jasper, purple for Daisy, pure silver for Zoe) merge and rise to the top of the room.

At that moment, the figures on the walls come to life one by one, slowly nodding their heads... They confirm.

Scene 5: Rewriting Destiny

After a burst of light, everyone crouches down. Breaths are held. But... there is a difference.

ZOE (slightly straightening up, looking around):

"It's like a new door opened in me. I am no longer just a learner... I am now the one who directs magic."

JASPER (without taking his eyes off Zoe):

"You're not just a witch, Zoe. You're the turning point. The girl who changed the destiny of magic."

MEL (laughs lightly):

"I still jump, but... I think I'm a bit of a spiritual ninja now."

CAROLINE (crosses her arms):

"After such intense emotions... someone bring me tea. With rose petals."

Epilogue: The Infinite Loop and the Threshold of the Future

As the night comes to an end, the team emerges from the gorge. The moon gives way to the sun. They walk with fatigue in their eyes, but endless strength in their hearts.

ZOE (with an inner voice, looking at the horizon):

"Every turn is a new beginning. We walk not with the burden of the past... but with the strength of friendship. And this journey is no longer just my legend... it's all of ours."

Episode 12 - Endless Horizons: A New Revolution in the World of Magic

Scene 1: A New Day, A New Era

As the morning sun cast golden glints on the windows of the city's buildings, Zoe looked out over the horizon from the top of the school. The wind blew her hair and her talisman sparkled in the sunlight. Next to her were Mel, Caroline, Katie, Jasper, Daisy. Each with the same expression in their eyes: we are ready.

ZOE (inner voice, deep but hopeful):

"This is not the end... This is the real beginning. We have rediscovered not only magic, but the light within ourselves. Now it is our turn to change this world."

MEL (suddenly falling back and sitting dramatically on the floor):

"Look at me! Seven days of the supernatural, body swapping, running from dark spirits, yoga in a maze! Is anyone planning a vacation for me?"

CAROLINE (laughing):

"Mel... you didn't do yoga, you just jumped in panic. But you didn't compromise your charisma."

KATIE (raising her arm in the air):

"I looked inside myself in the morning, and the result: I have pink butterflies and the smell of love!"

Scene 2: Shadow of the Threat - "Master of Shadows"

As Zoe looks through the pages of the old book Jasper brought her, a name comes up: "Umbrix" - the legendary sorcerer who wants to remake the world of magic according to his own dark order. The black spiral, the symbol of Umbrix, has started to appear on different walls of the city.

JASPER (with a serious but slightly strained expression):

"This symbol... can only be marked by dark magic. The Umbrix was not a true legend. And she is now part of our reality."

DAISY (sighing):

"I used to think that dealing with the darkness was about being alone, but now I know... when we are together, no shadow can last forever."

Scene 3: The Arrival of Liora the Light Fairy

There is a sudden burst of light above the square. With faint timbres, a graceful being with tiny wings appears. With a tiny but impressive aura, it glides among the young witches.

LIORA (with sparkling eyes):

"The darkness has returned. But you are the ones who understand magic with your heart. I am a Fairy, a descendant of the light. And you are no longer alone."

MEL (in astonishment, she holds out her hand to Liora):

"Is that... a tiny disco ball? It's glowing! Honey, are you on vacation?"

LIORA (laughing gently):

"No, my dear Mel, I joined the revolution."

Scene 4: Revolution Speech - Meeting with the People

The ancient witches' square. People are gathered, telling fragments of old witch stories. Zoe is standing on the dais. Around her, the whole team and Liora. Fear and hope in her heart.

ZOE (loudly, to the crowd filling the square):

"We carry the pain of the past. But we have created strength from these pains. Magic is born not only from words, but from friendship, courage and sharing. A new era begins! The shadows may return, but we will always shine!"

KATIE (in the background):

"I'm going to write romantic background music for this speech. I cried a little. Don't laugh."

JASPER (in a serious but warm tone):

"Zoe, you are not just a leader. You chose to be a light. And we follow you."

Scene 5: The First Clash of the Revolution

Suddenly, a dark energy rises in the center of the square. Shadows come together in a spiral. Shadow forms appear, foreshadowing the Umbrix. The people panic.

DAISY (clutching her amulet tightly as she pulls out her sword):

"No! This time we won't run!"

CAROLINE (turning her shoulder):

"Let me be clear... I am ready for these creatures."

JASPER (looking at Liora):

"Liora, now!"

LIORA raises the amulet into the air and light fills the area. Zoe and the team move to the front of the crowd, forming a circle of protection. The first clash with the darkness begins, but the team, united, pushes back the shadows with ritual magic.

Scene 6: Endless Horizons

As the sun sets, shouts of hope rise again in the square. The people rally around the team. Zoe places the amulet on the ground in the middle of the crowd. The amulet glows and takes root in the earth. A new magic tree sprouts. The revolution in the world of magic has officially begun.

ZOE (inner voice):

"Magic is no longer just a world of the strong... it's a world of the brave."

MEL (approaching him):

"You know what? If I write this story one day, the title will be: 'A Witch, a Cake and Too Much Darkness'. I'll go to the publishing house with the cake version."

KATIE:

"And flowery! And sparkly!"

Epilogue: A New Age of Witchcraft

Zoe looking up at the sky with Jasper:

JASPER:

"The transformation is complete. You are no longer just a student, but the leader of a revolution."

ZOE (quietly):

"And this is just the beginning. Endless horizons await us. If we walk together... the darkness will always be our shadow, never daring to descend upon us."

Episode 13 - On the Trail of Destiny: Journey Beyond Time

Scene 1: A Timeless Beginning

(It's midnight. The city is asleep, accompanied only by street lamps and the sound of distant wind. The team is gathered in the mansion room, Zoe is looking at the last page of an antique book. The pages flicker slightly).

ZOE (with a deep sigh, eyes fixed on the book):

"Sometimes magic is not just words... sometimes you have to whisper to time itself."

KATIE (slowly raises her hand):

"Whispering to time... do we have to cry in this ritual? Because I'm ready for tears, but not my makeup."

MEL (seriously):

"Whisper to time? I think you should shout. He might not hear if you speak quietly."

JASPER (serious but patient):

"Let's just focus. The time ritual works by intuition. It must be read with the heart, not the mind. If the words are true, the portal opens."

AMELIA (smiles wisely):

"The timeless opens when you dare to face your heart, children."

Scene 2: Ritual and Opening of the Door

(In the center room of the old mansion, the group forms a circle with their hands together. In the center is the amulet and the book. Zoe starts to read slowly from the book. At that moment all the clocks in the room stop at the same time).

ZOE (loudly):

"Beyond time, on the trail of destiny; the pains of the past, the hopes of the future I'm putting it together now!"

(Suddenly the book glows. A spinning golden hourglass appears in the center. The room begins to flicker with a mystical light. The floor turns into a mirror. They begin to be drawn in.)

CAROLINE (between panic and nerves):

"If you're sending us to another dimension, Zoe, tell me to put my hair up!"

DAISY (closing her eyes and breathing deeply):

"I'm ready. I want to make peace with my past."

Scene 3: Beyond Time - Confronting the Past

(When the team opens their eyes, they find themselves in a witch village from centuries ago. Stone streets, foggy atmosphere, walls full of ancient symbols... Darkness and light exist side by side.)

JASPER (surprised but fascinated):

"We are like something out of the history books... Or vice versa, we are their future."

ZOE (with his eyes looking at the streets filled with the spirits of the past):

"This place... it's like a place my heart has forgotten but my soul knows."

MEL (examining a statue of a witch):

"The way this woman looked at me gave me chills. Did she just wink?!"

(Suddenly an old witch spirit appears: graceful, strong but tired. In her hand is a replica of Zoe's amulet).

WITCH SPIRIT

"You... Children of Time. You walk the path we left. But remember... every power is tested by a choice."

Stage 4: Step into the Future

(Another portal opens. This time forward... A futuristic but nature-respecting world where magic and technology intertwine. Talisman towers suspended in the sky, digital divination screens and meditative floating platforms).

JASPER (looking at the dazzling view):

"This is the potential of magic. Hand in hand with humanity, in harmony with technology."

KATIE (mouth open, gleefully):

"In this world, taking a selfie is considered absolute magic. I'm all for it!"

CAROLINE (touched):

"This future... is proof that we are doing the right things."

Scene 5: Rewriting Destiny

(The team returns to the village of the past. They reunite in front of the mirror. Zoe presses the amulet to her heart).

ZOE

"Transcend time, rewrite destiny! With the light within us, transform the traces of the past into the future!"

(The room fills with white light. Fragments of time merge. Shadow and light harmonize. Dark emotions give way to peace and understanding.)

AMELIA (in a whisper):

"This is it... eternal magic. You are united in the heart of time."

Epilogue: The Trail to the Future

(The team wakes up in the mansion room. Everything seems the same, but the feelings in their hearts have changed. Looking out the window, the sky seems brighter than it has ever been in previous episodes).

DAISY (with a sincere smile):

"What happened in the past no longer defines me. They have made me stronger."

JASPER (comes to Zoe):

"Your light has changed the course of time."

ZOE : "Time is not a river. We are the ones who draw its direction. Now the past, the future and the present have merged into a single line. And we walk that line together."

Episode 14 - Call of Shadows: The Umbrix's Final Move

The Quiet Before the Storm

The wind began to howl as the moon rose slowly into the night, casting a flickering light on the towers of the school. Zoe put the antique book on the windowsill and looked outside. The silence that followed the final ritual was... too quiet.

ZOE: "We have traveled beyond time, seen the past, felt the future, but now... the darkness is coming back. This is not the end, but the beginning of the greatest test."

Just then, a black mark fell on the misty surface of the glass. A symbol: three circles and an intertwined shadow. It was the sign of the Umbrix, the being mentioned in ancient prophecies.

The Awakening of the Umbrix

The next morning, strange things began to happen in the schoolyard. Plants were wilting and shadows were lengthening. Jasper and Liora were anxious as they measured the energy fields.

JASPER: "It's... like an attack on nature itself. The shadows have begun to gain consciousness. The Umbrix could be powerful enough to swallow the world of magic."

LIORA (trembling slightly): "The Call of the Shadows has begun. The Umbrix was a being forbidden to be mentioned, even in legends. If we don't stop him, the light could be extinguished forever."

Mel ran screaming just then when a "shadow form" attacked the toaster on fire in the kitchen.

MEL: "Somebody explain to me! Why did my breakfast try to bite me?!"

Shadow Gate and Last Call

With the secret map she had received from Amelia, Zoe found the **"Shadow Door"** behind the ancient mirror. The door was sealed with magic. The inscription on it read:

"Only he who accepts darkness in his heart can protect the light."

As Zoe put her hands on the door, she realized that it was not only Umbrix she had to face, but the dark side within herself.

First Contact with the Umbrix - Dream Scene

That night, Zoe encountered the Umbrix in a strange dream. A gigantic being, made of shadows, able to see without eyes... The Umbrix spoke directly to Zoe.

UMBRIX (in a booming but calm voice): "You bless the light, but you are born in darkness. I am every fear, every anger you suppress. I am you."

ZOE (resisting): "No... You may be the darkness in me, but I am no longer alone. And when the shadow is alone, it loses."

Clash with the Shadows - Battle in the Dark Garden

The next day, when the school playground was surrounded by the Umbrix's shadow armies, the team counterattacked in an organized way for the first time.

- Katie boosted the morale of the team with emotional spells.
- Caroline struck three shadows with one hand while protecting everyone with magical shields.
- Mel played "air guitar" in the shadows with his broom, creating chaos and distraction.
- Jasper called light to the sky as he stabilized the spell fields.
- Daisy silenced the shadows with words she had learned from ancient prophecies.
- Liora pierced the darkness with arrows of light.
- Asteria was at Zoe's side; together they choreographed a magical double fight - magic and sword in one.

ZOE (loudly): "This is not our last chance. This is our truest moment! The light of our hearts will send you back, Umbrix!"

Final Fall of Shadows

Zoe completed the spell in front of the Umbrix by pressing the amulet to her heart. The whole team formed a circle. The light from their hearts spread over the Umbrix.

UMBRIX (slowly fading away): "I will remain in you forever, but in balance with the light... perhaps for the first time I will find peace..."

The body of the Umbrix slowly disintegrated. The sky lit up. The school breathed again.

Epilogue - A New Day, A New Balance

As the morning sun rose in the schoolyard, the team hugged each other. They were tired but full of hope.

DAISY: "The Umbrix wasn't just an enemy. It was everything in us that we didn't accept."

KATIE: "And we... learned that we can love them too."

MEL: "Now can I start the new day with a toaster that doesn't attack breakfast!"

ZOE : "Magic is born not only in the light, but also in the shadow. And we... together we have learned to walk in both."

Episode 15 - Curse of the Rising Moon: Awakening of the Moon Temple

Darkness Beginning in Moonlight

Midnight. The full moon rose silently over the city, illuminating the sky almost like daylight. But Zoe felt that something was wrong behind the brightness. The moon seemed bigger and more... ominous than usual. The edges of the antique book curled in on themselves, and the amulet gave off a slight chill instead of warmth.

ZOE:

"This full moon... is not ordinary. It's as if an ancient curse awakening in the heart of the moon is calling us."

At that moment, Jasper came to him like the wind. The piece of map in his hand was shaking.

JASPER (in a serious and low voice):

"I found a trace of magic. The Temple of the Moon... is awakening. And if the prophecy is true, tonight the Curse of the Moon will be reborn."

The Mystery of the Moon Temple

The next day, the team met in the secret witch room. Jasper was piecing together maps and trying to locate the Temple of the Moon, while Amelia was rummaging through notes on ancient moon spells. Katie was giddy with fear, while Mel, on the contrary, was tapping her feet in anticipation of the action.

MEL:

"Moon temple? A curse? I'm ready to fight the monster before I've even had breakfast!"

CAROLINE (frowning):

"I wish we could solve it calmly for once, but yes... If there is Mel, we run and jump into danger again."

DAISY (in a calm but deep tone):

"This curse is not only an external danger. It awakens the darkness we hide within. Are we ready?"

JASPER (after a short silence):

"The temple... will open at the very peak of the full moon. But only those who are attuned to the lunar element can pass through the gates."

Zoe's amulet suddenly glowed.

ZOE:

"So... this task falls to me."

Awakening of the Moon Temple

At night, at the peak of the full moon, the team moved deeper into the forest, tracing the ancient lunar path. The area where the temple stood was shrouded in dense fog. Glowing symbols and mystical voices echoed through the stone pillars.

At the entrance to the temple was a giant stone door. It was inscribed with these words:

"When the moon rises, the real confronts the real. Only he who makes peace with the shadow can cross the light."

Katie touched the amulet lightly and it flew back. Jasper sighed:

JASPER:

"So... only Zoe can come in. We're on guard here."

Mel jumped in:

MEL:

"Stand guard? No, I can climb barbed walls and punch stones, but I can't wait here!"

Caroline rolled her eyes.

CAROLINE:

"Mel, if even having tea with someone is a battle for you, let Zoe take center stage this time."

Zoe's Journey Inside the Temple

When Zoe stepped inside, the temple silently closed and disappeared. Inside was a labyrinth glowing with moonlight. With every step, scenes from her past came to life: her first spell, the crises with her friends, her own inner fears...

Then, in the center of the temple, a giant moon crystal appeared. Opposite it... stood the dark reflection of Zoe. A cold, chilling version. Same face, same eyes... but empty inside.

DARK ZOE:

"You are just a reflection. Fragile, cowardly, needing the approval of others. This power does not belong to you."

ZOE (eyes full, but determined):

"I grew up with my fears, I progressed with my mistakes, my strength comes from making peace with my flaws!"

The dark reflection turned into light and was absorbed into the crystal. The temple trembled. The moonstone glowed. Zoe suddenly found herself outside, in the arms of her friends.

Epilogue - Eye of the Moon Opened

The moonstone was now united with Zoe's amulet. As the moon returned to normal in the sky, the team embraced each other with a new sense of peace.

DAISY:

"The curse of the moon... was actually our own unresolved feelings inside us. And thanks to Zoe, we saw it all."

KATIE:

"Ay, too dramatic. I'd like some sun. Glitter, hot coffee. Lots of sugar. I'm happy!"

CAROLINE (laughing):

"But every shadow creates a light, Katie. Have some respect for the shadow."

Jasper came up to Zoe and took her hand:

JASPER:

"You don't just do magic. You create balance. And the moon has chosen you. You are no longer just a witch, you are a guide."

ZOE (inner voice):

"Under the moon, I made peace with my own darkness. True magic is not only in the light, but also in being brave in the shadow."
