Profile

Inspired by the early days of internet media, I am a self-taught editor that began my career by making homemade music videos and later perfected my craft by earning a film degree from Miami-Dade College. Today, I combine my musical intuition with my eye for visuals by collaborating with the likes of FiteTV and DreFilms.

Experience

Freelance Filmmaker

Alicia Ferra Productions

- Edited and shot original content in the form of children's content, sports highlights, music videos, TV pilots, and several independent Miami cinema projects.
- Was a videographer for a female grappling event to raise awareness for domestic violence on FiteTV.
- Edited a highlight reel for Cliff Avril's surprise retirement party.

Post Production Intern

Atomic Digital Media

- Was responsible for editing children's content, recording voice-overs, and making thumbnails for videos via Photoshop.

Sales Photographer

Magic Memories

- Photographed tourists and edited together a package to sell to them.
