Ballycartoon Players

Ballycartoon Productions was founded in 2017 in Doolin, Co Clare to create, produce and tell stories that are inspired by the people and area of North Clare. We aim to tell stories that may be overlooked or forgotten yet need to be told. 'Jiving Lessons for the Broken-Hearted' play was our first full production where it premiered in the Royal Spa Hotel in Lisdoonvarna to two sold out performances.

Ballycartoon Players 'The Only Punker in the Village'

'The Only Punk Rocker in the Village' is a new play by Dermott Petty. The play is set in North Clare in the late 1970's where a teenagers discovery of Punk Rock turns his life upside down. In the village however there is only 1 Punk Rocker. This one Punk Rocker has notions of rebellion, grandeur and turning the world upside down. The origins of the play came from a poem of Dermott titled 'When Punk Rock Came to North Clare' that was published by Revival Press in Limerick. The play was Directed by Joan O'Hanrahan, and performed by Dermott Petty.

'The Only Punk Rocker in the Village' play had its World Premiere on June 27th, 2019 at the Guildhall in Barnstable, Devon as part of the Barnstable Theatrefest Fringe Festival.
