

JAESON FINN

Storyboard/Production Artist

Jaeson is a highly regarded, imaginative, professional illustrator, storyboard artist and concept designer who has worked in film, television, games and comics. A great all rounder, he has worked for Universal, HBO, Warner Brothers and the BBC on features and award winning programmes as well as for small independents and advertising companies. Experience with a range of software packages, covering animation, digital video and computer generated imaging, Jaeson can provide fast-turnaround 3D pre-visualisation and animatics. Based in London, he is available for work worldwide.
