Other ideas for screenplays –

I want to write a British zombie TV series to rival the success of previous series around the world. It will be based on my novel series – CLIFTON FALLS

I've also started writing a comedy story about 2 brothers who end up being in the wrong place at the right time. Where they get mistaken for the Hitmen a Crime Boss has hired to murder his wife.

I've also started writing a horror/thriller about a newlywed couple who end up in an accident whilst on honeymoon. The husband has to do a deal with the Devil to save his wife's soul.
