Training

I took a modeling training class when I just graduated from college in Taiwan.

I attended the training class with PMTM Agency when I was chosen, and lucky to attend the Universal Actors Sessions in April. Also attended the training before the event.

Education

TaHwa College at HsinChu, Taiwan R.O.C.

Major in Mechanical Engineering with a Bachelor's Degree

Special Skills

I am bilingual and can speak Mandarin and English well (I can also speak some different dialects in the Taiwan area, Taiwanese and Hakka). I can also speak a "little" Japanese and Korean because I was doing business with overseas customers when I was in Taiwan.

I am a self-study artist and also love to write calligraphy. I was in the chorus from 10 until college. I also joined the drum group when I was in Junior high. I was also part of the Chinese Music Club when I was in college, and played the lute (Pipa) and sang when we performed in college. I learned some Chinese drama gestures when I was little. I am modeling part-time when I was in Taiwan, just graduated from college (just for fun)

I was teaching Mandan class for a few years in High School in the US, and also a few years as a Teacher's assistant from preschool to 8th grade, too.

Most of my career, I have worked in Sales, Customer Service Admin., Marketing, and PR positions with overseas clients.

I was working as a Beauty Advisor at the Chanel Counter, then worked for Tom Ford as a Counter Manager at the perfumes Department. Then transferred to the Emporio Armani fashion clothing line. As of present, I am a Freelancer Beauty Advisor for Tom Ford and Dior. And Chanel's three major cosmetics lines for now.
