Peter Herlan is a globally recognized screenwriter and former corporate executive who began his screenwriting career in November 2023 and rapidly emerged as one of the most prolific voices in independent film.

Drawing inspiration from real-life experiences, family values, and his role as an uncle to seven nieces and nephews, Herlan creates emotionally resonant, commercially driven stories designed for worldwide audiences.

His work spans comedy, drama, family, faith, military, suspense, romantic comedy, and western genres, with a signature focus on human connection, redemption, and hope. Known for developing studio-ready feature films with strong international appeal, Herlan continues to build a reputation for compelling storytelling and market-minded creativity.
