

Professional Summary

Creative cinematographer with experience and exceptional storytelling skills. Have worked with several different directors and producers who have helped to gain exposure to several different production styles. Thorough understanding of camera equipment, including operation and maintenance. Accustomed to working in any sort of conditions, including outdoor locations and sets. I am highly self motivated, innovative, adapt quickly to dynamic environments.

As a teenager, I felt an immediate desire to understand the visual language and I knew that photography would be my profession. I know the importance of capturing the moment and I work with the belief that every picture tells a story. My interest in photography dragged me to moving frames. From then am totally in love with it and proved my excellence after my graduation in Film and Television studies, Auckland, New Zealand. For two years I worked as a photographer's assistant in India on fashion shows, model shoots and advertising. As a photographer, I am able to work comfortably among people with careful attention to detail and composition.
